Fire Captain In Vancouver Crashes His Speeding Car

District Chief Swerves and Saves Life of Man Approaching in Auto and Then Swerves to Avoid Hitting Parked Car and His Roadster Plunges Through Plateglass Window Into Store, Leaving Him Uninjured.

Vancouver, June 20.—District Fire Chief J. W. McMorran, speeding south on Main Street here to a fire at 8:30 o'clock this morning, saved one man from death and took his own life in his hands when, to avoid striking another automobile at the Georgia Street intersection, he double-swerved his red roadster, bounced over a sidewalk and plunged through a window into a store building.

McMorran, his siren shrieking loudly, was leading a swift parade of three fire trucks. As he reached Georgia Street a car driven by O. W. Humber, Richards Street, which had been going north on Main Street, swung directly into his path, heading in the direction of the Georgia Viaduct.

With a swerve to the right McMorran prevented a collision with Humber's car, and then with another swerve to the left he avoided a car parked on the south side of the viaduct approach near Main Street. His car was slowing down, but had too much momentum to permit it to be halted before it crashed into a window in the premises of the Western Plumbing and Electric Company at 701 Main Street.

McMorran threw his arms over his face just before his car crashed through the window amid a shower of broken glass.

Humber's car almost completed a semi-circle, broke a light standard immediately outside the plumbing store's window and piled up on its wreckage, pointing south. The car was damaged in the windshield, steering gear and radiator.

The car of the district chief, who was not injured, entered the store window, with the exception of one rear tire, and rested on a pile of lumber, broken glass, nuts, bolts and pipes. The machine itself appeared to have suffered little damage.

ONLY SMOKE

When Humber's automobile was stopped and McMorran's roadster had swerved, the three following trucks continued south to attend the fire. It was found the furnace in the basement of the Bank of Montreal branch at Main and Prior Streets had been smoking. No damage was done.

TRADE EXPERT TO BRING NEW CAPITAL HERE

Charles H. Luke of London Times Will Write on Industrial Development of Canada Says Britain Is Not Interested in Hearing About Granary of Empire

The mania for raising tariffs which has obsessed practically every nation of the world and the individualism of the British manufacturer which has prevented him from taking up the widespread schemes of propaganda adopted by competitive countries, has been the greatest stumbling block to the "come-back" of British industry since the world upheaval, said Charles H. Luke, executive of The London Times trade and engineering supplement, following his arrival in Victoria to-day from London.

Mr. Luke has a special business mission in Canada in connection with inter-empire trade and has visited all the important cities since he landed at Quebec from the liner Empress of Scotland on May 4.

He is interviewing leading men connected with industry, trade and commerce, chambers of commerce, boards of trade and various departments of Dominion and provincial governments.

VISITED PREMIER

This morning Mr. Luke visited Premier Tolmie at his office in the Parliament Buildings and informally (Continued on Page 19)

ONTARIO WOMAN ASKS IN SON ABOARD LOST AEROPLANE

London, Ont., June 20.—Mrs. Frederick Smith of this city has asked Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner in Great Britain, to check up her belief that her son Alfred was one of the seven victims of the aeroplane crash in the English Channel last Monday. In the list of persons drowned the name of Alfred Smith, Melbourne, was given. Mrs. Smith states her son was on a tour of the world as secretary to a wealthy New Yorker and as far as she knows his last stopping place was Melbourne.

Bloodhounds Trail Convicts

Brazoria, Texas, June 20.—Five of forty-three convicts who kidnapped three guards and escaped from the Clemens State Prison Farm early to-day had been recaptured at noon. Two of them were shot by a cattleman who had been aroused by a negro whose car had been confiscated by the convicts. They were not badly hurt and were returned to the prison farm.

Purses with bloodhounds were ranging through the Brazos bottom lands this afternoon on the trail of the fugitives, who are believed to have scattered and fled through the dense underbrush of the Brazos River bottoms.

WIDOW SUES FOR SHARE IN RICH QUARRY

Quarter Interest in Haddington Island Claimed By Estate of Late Mr. Justice Eberts

Action By Henry Rudge and Others Adjournd For Argument on June 28

Haddington Island, said to be the site of almost inexhaustible quantities of igneous sandstone, valuable for building purposes, became the centre of a second lawsuit to-day, when Mrs. Mabel H. Eberts, executrix of the estate of the late Hon. Mr. Justice D. M. Eberts, commenced suit before Mr. Justice Gregory against W. J. Taylor, K.C., and the Haddington Island Quarry Company Limited for an undivided fourth interest in the property, known as Lot 10, Rupert District.

SEEKS ACCOUNTING

The trial, in which the plaintiff also asks an accounting of partnership funds and assets of the former law firm of Eberts and Taylor, opened in Supreme Court this morning, with Harold B. Robertson, K.C., for the plaintiff, and W. J. Taylor, K.C., in person, for the defence. The Haddington Island Quarry Company Limited entered no appearance.

In opening this morning Mr. Robertson stated Mrs. Eberts hoped to show that an undivided one-quarter interest in the quarry property was due to the estate of the late Hon. Mr. Justice Eberts. Virtually a half interest in the island was secured by the firm of Eberts and Taylor at one time, and the estate was entitled to half, he would submit. Mr. Robertson proceeded to trace the ownership of Haddington Island Quarry property from the prior action by Henry Rudge and associates against the Haddington Island Quarry Company Limited.

Counsel for the plaintiff placed in exhibit the court record of former actions bearing on this case and referred to a consent order obtained before Mr. Justice Gregory in 1922 when the quarry property was divided between W. J. Taylor, K.C., J. Coughlan, C. H. Macdonald, A. J. Macdonald and Ernest Temple on a basis that left forty-nine per cent in the hands of Mr. Taylor, he said.

CRUCIFIXION MARKS LEAD TO MAN'S ARREST

Unusual Identification in Vancouver; Winnipeg Police Charge Russian With Theft

Vancouver, June 20.—Marks left on his hands and neck by crucifixion in Russia years ago led to the arrest here yesterday afternoon of Louis Miller, alias Stollerman, alias Green, sixty-one, who is held on a warrant issued in Winnipeg charging him with the theft of $9,150.

Winnipeg authorities, in asking the arrest of the man, stated he could be identified by scars on the palms and back of his hands and on his neck and by the fact that he had had the thumb of his right hand amputated.

The man was picked up by Sergeant George Sunstrum and W. Latimer, who said he told them the scars had been made when he was crucified in Russia several years ago. Nails were driven through his hands and neck and he was left hanging on a wall for some time, he stated. After he was taken down, his right thumb was amputated and he was allowed to go.

Tariff Shaped For All Canada, Not On Reprisal Basis, Say Three Ministers

Grand Bend, Ont., June 20.—Independence of action on the tariff is the policy of the King Government, and it will continue to carry out this principle on a national basis, in the interest of all sections of Canada. This was made plain in speeches delivered yesterday afternoon by three members of Cabinet to the great throng at a picnic held here by the South Huron Liberal Association.

"We will shape our policies, fiscal and otherwise, at Ottawa," said Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice. "We will not take them from Washington."

"The tariff policy of this country should be adjusted to meet the needs of Canadians alone," said Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, dealing with the suggestion of tariff reprisals by Canada against the United States, made by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, who is now making a tour of southern Ontario.

"In all fields of activity the past year has been the most prosperous in the history of Canada," said Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of National Revenue.

EARLY CATTLEMAN PASSES AWAY HERE

Josiah Hemens, One of Cariboo's Pioneers, Dies; Was 81 Years of Age

Josiah Hemens, one of the last pioneers of the Cariboo district and a resident of Victoria for the last sixty-five years, died at an early hour this morning at his home, 1013 Esquimalt Road, after a short illness.

He was born in Belleville, Ontario, in 1848, his parents being U.E. Loyalists, and came to Cariboo district as a land of nineteen years with Harper Brothers. He helped to drive the first lot of cattle brought into Canada from Oregon by these cattlemen. He was also associated with the late Mr. Graves in the cattle business in the Kamloops district, and of more recent years with Pat Burns.

Police Seek Relatives of Bank Robber

Vancouver, June 20.—Vancouver police are communicating with cities in prairie provinces in an endeavor to find relatives of Arthur Thomas, nineteen, who pleaded guilty Wednesday to holding up the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada branch on Commercial Drive, here Tuesday morning and stealing $4,000.

Thomas is said to have stated he originally came from Manitoba. Other statements made by him have led to the belief he may have lived in Edmonton for a time.

CANADA'S TEAM ARRIVES IN ENGLAND FOR BISLEY MEET

London, June 20 (Canadian Press Cable).—In excellent condition, prepared to battle for the trophies they lost last year, the Canadian Bisley team arrived in England to-day. A score or so of expert marksmen will participate in the National Rifle Association's great shooting meet at Bisley camp, Surrey, to open two weeks hence.

On the youthful shoulders of Lieut. Desmond Burke of the Governor-General's Bodyguards, Ottawa, rests the chief Canadian hope of capturing the classic of the meet for individual marksmen, the King's Prize. Lieut. Burke won the high award in 1928, and last year was a close second. In 1927 also he lost by just one point.

The two great team prizes, the Knapdale Cup and the Mackinnon Cup, are also main objectives of the Canadians, who held them for three years and one year, respectively. Last year the British team took the Knapdale Cup and Australia captured the Mackinnon Cup.

LITTLE JOE

WILLING THREE DOWN TO-DAY

MacNaughton, Portland, Leads Pacific Golf Champion on Day's Play

Seattle, June 20.—In a big upset, Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, defending champion, fell three holes behind in this morning's round of the quarter finals of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association tournament before the brilliant play of his youthful opponent, Malcolm MacNaughton of the Oregon city.

Bow-Stein, Seattle, had Lloyd Nordstrom, Seattle, 3 down; Chester Egan, Medford, Ore., was leading Clark Spiers, Seattle, by two holes, while Frank Dolp, Portland, was 1 up on Roy Moe of the same city.

MacNaughton stroked the first eighteen holes of the thirty-six-hole match in 71, 2 under par, while the Portland veteran took 77. Dr. Willing shot a 34, 2 under par, for the first nine and then went to pieces to take 43 on the home stretch.

His card included a nine for the par 4 fourteenth hole.

Mrs. S. C. Twenty of Vancouver, B.C., defending champion, entered the quarter finals of the women's championship tournament when she disposed of Mrs. Brent Potter of San Jose, Cal., one up.

Mrs. Sweeney was forced to play the first eighteen holes to eliminate her California opponent.

INVERSHIN WINS ASCOT GOLD CUP

Repeats Success of Last Year; Reign Count Second; Palais Royal II. Third

Ascot, Eng., June 20.—The famous Ascot Gold Cup will remain in England for another year despite the attempts of French and United States horses to annex the trophy, which is the feature attraction of the Ascot meet. For the second consecutive year the British colt Invershin, owned by Reid Walker, won the historic cup to-day in a field of thirteen horses, including the best French and United States colts.

Invershin finished strong, two lengths ahead of Reign Count, leading the States three years old of last year, and favorite for to-day's race, Palais Royal II, a French entry, captured third place, three lengths behind Reign Count.

Reign Count, owned by Mrs. John D. Hertz of Chicago, was the favorite before the race at 4 to 1. Invershin paid 6 to 1, while the odds on the French horse to win were 10 to 1.

The Gold Cup, run over a two-and-a-half-mile course, paid $2,500 (about $12,500) to the winner in addition to the cup, valued at $500.

GREAT DRIVE

For the first mile the thirteen horses were well bunched. When the field moved into the final six furlongs there was a general closing up. A quarter of a mile from home Invershin began his drive to the wire, passing Lawuit, Reign Count, Palais Royal II and Crude Guerre to take the lead. Reign Count crept up a second place and made a gallant attempt to overhaul the flying British colt, but failed, finishing two lengths in the rear.

Invershin stepped the two and a half miles in 3:24 4-5.

TORONTO'S NEW COURT OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS STARTS

Toronto, June 20.—Toronto's new court of domestic relations is in operation to-day, its task being to deal chiefly with family relations and child delinquency cases. Its outstanding feature is that admonitions replace harsher disciplinary measures. It was officially opened yesterday by Attorney-General Price when he administered the oaths to Judge H. S. Mott and Deputy Judge R. S. Hoskins.

CALLS SURVEYS EXCUSE FOR PARTIZANSHIP

Government Waging Campaign of Political Publicity, Says Pattullo

The naming of numerous commissions, for the many surveys ordered by the Provincial Government since it took office was attacked by T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition to-day, as an excuse for further partizanship during a campaign of political publicity and unauthorized expenditure.

Mr. Pattullo intimates that the commissions are named to provide political plums for party workers when he says the commissions consist of partizans and charges the Government with squandering money as never before and indulging in an orgy of dismissal and appointment.

"The present Government is engaging itself in a campaign of political publicity," he says.

"Policies or administrative effort pursued by the previous Government are placed before the public in the worst possible light, while intimation is given of remedial measures to follow investigation by the innumerable commissions that are being appointed."

"These commissions consist of partizans, and are costing the people of the Province large sums of money. They are obviously designed to furnish the administration with an excuse for further partizanship."

ROCKY MOUNTAIN LAKES ARE STOCKED WITH TROUT

Jasper, Alta., June 20.—Renowned for its beauty and its size, Maligne Lake, the largest lake in Jasper National Park and in the Canadian Rockies, will soon have another claim to fame. Within a few years it will be a fisherman's paradise. The stocking of Maligne Lake with speckled trout was a Federal Government experiment, and a triumph of the ingenuity of man.

Maligne is a glacial lake and heretofore had never supported fish in its cold and beautiful depths, but last year Government experts brought in 250,000 trout eggs, and after they had hatched dropped the fingerlings carefully into the water. This year the fish are five and six inches long, are thriving on insects and are as lively as they should be. O. Bright, superintendent of the Fort Qu'Appelle hatchery, who has just concluded an inspection, declared himself to-day as highly pleased with the results.

A few days ago Maligne Lake received 230,000 more inhabitants. They arrived in Jasper during the winter as eggs from Greece, Pennsylvania. In addition to the 40,000 rainbow trout from Montana have just been put into Cabin Lake.

London, June 20.—The long-suffering tipsters, the gentlemen who enrich the already overloaded pockets of public caterers, have received a pleasant surprise at the Empire Theatre, one of London's largest. Wealth of Canada Gains Nearly Billion In Year

Ottawa, June 20.—The natural wealth of Canada, exclusive of undeveloped natural resources, is placed at $27,687,000,000 for the year 1927, in an estimate made public at the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. This is an increase of $900,000,000 over the 1928 estimate.

The wealth as divided among the provinces is as follows:

Ontario, $6,580,775,000, or 34.53 per cent of the total.
Quebec, $6,852,279,000, or 34.75 per cent.
Saskatchewan, $2,998,055,000, or 10.83 per cent.
British Columbia, $2,318,650,000, or 8.38 per cent.
Alberta, $2,258,210,000, or 8.16 per cent.
Manitoba, $1,925,356,000, or 6.95 per cent.
Nova Scotia, $875,129,000, or 3.10 per cent.
New Brunswick, $751,818,000, or 2.71 per cent.
Prince Edward Island, $148,493,000, or .53 per cent.
Yukon Territory, $16,830,000, or .05 per cent.

PER CAPITA WEALTH

While Ontario and Quebec lead in absolute wealth, the western provinces come first in per capita wealth, as follows:

British Columbia, $4,032.

Alberta, $3,660.

Saskatchewan, $3,586.

Ontario, $3,000.

Manitoba, $2,976.

Quebec, $2,631.

New Brunswick, $1,829.

Prince Edward Island, $1,715.

Nova Scotia, $1,578.

Yukon, doubtful.

AGRICULTURE BIG ITEM

The total agriculture wealth in 1927 was $6,027,301,000, the largest item in the national wealth and 28.99 per cent of the whole. This amount includes the value of agricultural production in 1927, or $1,730,904,000 to cover the average stocks of agricultural goods in the possession of farmers and traders and the amount invested in the preparation for the new crops.

The second largest item in the national wealth was urban real property, this including the assessed valuation of taxes and exempted property, to which was added one-third to provide for under-valuation by assessors, and for roads, bridges and sewers. The estimated value as based on returns for 1927 received in the bureau from municipalities was $7,238,888,000, or 26.14 per cent of the total wealth of the Dominion.

STEAM RAILWAYS

The wealth invested in steam railways, computed from the cost of road and equipment and distributed by provinces on the basis of mileage constituted the next largest item, amounting to $2,950,000,000, or 10.66 per cent of the total.

Another important item is the tangible value of forests, which, estimated on the basis of the latest available data, amounted to $1,887,613,000, or 6.75 per cent of the whole. This includes the estimated value of accessible raw material, pulpwood and capital invested in woods operations, and also an estimate of $525,000,000 for the present value of young growth, distributed among the provinces according to the estimated stumpage value.

MANUFACTURING

The value of machinery and tools in manufacturing establishments, and of lands and buildings of manufacturing concerns in rural districts was estimated, at $1,135,455,000 in 1927, or 4.1 per cent of the whole. In addition, the estimated value of materials on hand and stocks in process of manufacture was set at $729,000,000, or 2.63 per cent of the total.

The item, trading establishments, shows the estimated value of furniture and fixtures, delivery equipment and materials and stocks on hand in 1927 as $985,665,000, or 3.56 per cent of the total.

On the basis of the estimated population in 1927 of 9,519,000, the per capita investment in agriculture wealth was $843, in urban real property $760, in steam railways $310, in forests $196 and in household furnishings and personal property $126. The per capita wealth of all kinds was $2,906.

It is estimated that at least 1,000,000 persons in the United States have some form of speech disorder.

SONS OF CANADA ARE READY FOR JULY HOLIDAY

Sacred Concert By Massed Choirs and Several Sports Events on Programme

An attractive programme of events, in which sports will play an important part, has been arranged to take place over the week-end of July 1, Dominion Day. Preliminary arrangements were made last night at a special meeting of a committee composed of members of the Victoria branch of the Sons of Canada.

A feature of the celebration will be a sacred concert by the augmented choir of the city churches to be held in the Willow Arena on Sunday afternoon, June 30. Dean Quinlan will deliver the address. The choir will be assisted by one of the local bands and arrangements are now being made to secure one or two soloists. A special appeal is being made by the committee to all members of church choirs to be present at the next practice, which will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the school room of First United Church. The Victoria Musical Festival Association desires to make this service surpass any of the excellent events of previous years, and this can be done by the church choirs giving their whole-hearted support.

On Monday, July 1, a sports day will be held at the Royal Athletic Park. The well-known Firemen's Baseball Team of Vancouver will be seen in action against the Sons of Canada team. These teams will play in the morning and evening. During the afternoon the Maple Leaf Lacrosse team of Vancouver will play a Victoria team. An interesting bicycle meet is being arranged by the Bicycle Club of Victoria.

The day will probably be brought to a close by community singing in front of the Parliament Buildings in the evening.

Rail Board Hears Car Rates Case

Vancouver, June 20.—The Federal Board of Railway Commissioners here yesterday afternoon reserved judgment on the application of the city of Vancouver for city street car rates on the interurban line of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company to Marpole. The city claimed workmen from the city had to pay seventeen cents to get to their work if they used the line.

Application from the Public Works Department of elimination of a level crossing at a point near Abbotsford, on the Yale Road, was granted subject to a favorable report being made by the board's experts.

The application of Chilliwack Municipality for an overhead road crossing the Great Northern Railway was granted.

CALIFORNIA TO HOLD 'PHANTOM' FOR JAIL TERMS

Vancouver Police Wish to Try L. E. Sampsel, But Other Charges Come First

Vancouver, June 20.—Vancouver authorities wish to try Lloyd E. Sampsel, arrested in San Francisco, as the "Phantom Bandit" who operated here, but may not have the opportunity, according to an announcement from police headquarters.

"We have not waived any claim to a right to bring the man here for trial," said Police Chief W. J. Bingham, "but San Francisco officials assure me we would have to wait many years to obtain his custody. Three California cities wish to try him on bank robbery charges, and as he is said to have violated his parole from the San Quentin penitentiary, he will be returned there for the completion of his sentence in any event."

NOT SENDING OFFICERS
"We will watch development for a time. At present it would seem to be a useless expenditure of city funds to send officers to California in an effort to extradite him."

Chief W. J. Quinn of San Francisco, D. J. O'Brien, former police chief of the city, M. Morgan, commissioner of public relations, and D. J. O'Brien Jr., barrister, also of San Francisco, were in Vancouver yesterday and had a conference with Chief Bingham regarding the Sampsel case. All were definite in their declarations it would be useless to make any attempts to have the man extradited.

BANQUET GIVEN NEW OFFICERS

Convention of Grand Chapter of B.C., O.E.S., Concluded Sessions Last Evening

In honor of the newly-elected officers of the Grand Chapter of B.C. O.E.S., a banquet was held at the Empress Hotel last night. The proceedings did not wind up until about 11 o'clock, so that many of the mainland delegates, about 125 in number, deferred their departure until to-day. About four hundred guests attended the banquet. The installation ceremony was marked by the usual dignified rites, the installing officer being Mrs. Catherine Matthews, past grand matron.

Immediately preceding the installation the worthy matron, Mrs. Davis, extended a welcome to some of the distinguished visitors from a distance who had come to Victoria to attend the sessions, including Sister Gertrude E. Benjamin, worthy grand elector of the General Grand Chapter, Salt Lake City, Utah; Miss Gibson, grand matron of Alberta; Leithbridge, and Mrs. Elams, past grand matron of Saskatchewan. The convention was brought to a close this afternoon by a reception given in Amphion Hall in honor of the newly-elected officers, the delegates and the visitors to the sessions.

$12,000 DONATED FOR CATHEDRAL

Subscriptions Coming in Well For Fund; One Family Gives $500

Including a family gift of $500, and other subscriptions received this morning at the Memorial Hall, the total amount contributed to the Bishop of Columbia's appeal for $40,000 to complete the nave of the New Christ Church Cathedral, is $11,248.16. As a further illustration of the fact that subscriptions are coming from rich and poor alike, who wish to share in the building of the cathedral, it is reported that among to-day's gifts was one of ten dollars for the furnishing fund from a man who wrote: "I am only getting $30 a month and keep myself, but I have time and light free." The total contributed to the furnishing fund this week is $462.15. The balance required is $7,537.85. A number of gifts have also been received for the completion of the "children's corner." The sum of $102.17 has been contributed by boys and girls, or by parents in memory of children towards the provision of a marble floor in the baptistry.

FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF RESIDENTS AND VISITORS who may prefer to give their contribution in person at a downtown office, arrangements have been made for subscriptions to be left at the following places in the city by the kindness of the managers concerned: Royal Trust Company, Belmont Building, opposite Empress Hotel; Litchfield's Ltd., 1109 Government Street; Brett and Ker Ltd., corner of Government and View Streets; Canadian Bank of Commerce, Douglas and Johnson Street Branch.

Official receipts will be given at these offices and also to those who call at the Memorial Hall, 912 Vancouver Street.

Boards Of Trade Discuss Questions

Nelson, B.C., June 20.—Sixty-eight delegates, representing nine boards of trade, met in convention here yesterday at the twenty-ninth annual gathering of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, the "Parliament on the Kootenays."

The business programme was not heavy and the convention concluded with a big banquet in the evening. C. O. Rogers, Cresson, presided owing to the illness of Noble Binns of Trail, president.

Authorization was given Commissioner F. A. Starkey to deal with the question of removal of the discrimination in regard to freight rates on goods of Eastern Canadian origin as compared with the coast, under which it was declared this territory had suffered for thirty years.

Lower Freight Charges on Rice Are Now Asked

Vancouver, June 20.—Equalization of railway freight rates on milled rice put into effect under an order made in 1925 raised the eastbound tariff to the detriment of the Vancouver industry and brought no advantage to the Montreal interests which inaugurated the application. It was charged by W. M. Griffin, K.C., at this morning's session of the Board of Railway Commissioners here. Mr. Griffin was speaking to the application of the Canada Rice Mills Ltd. and Martin and Robertson Ltd. of Vancouver for a reduction of the rate on milled rice to the blanket basis of 75 cents a 100 pounds, which prevailed from 1922 till 1925. Decision was reserved by the board.

Canadian Women Protest The Use Of American Text Books

Saskatoon, June 20.—Canadianization of industries and immigration claimed the attention of the national convention of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada and the Home-makers Clubs, Saskatchewan, in joint session in this city, yesterday afternoon. The report on Canadianization, read by Miss Hazel McCain, superintendent of Women's Institutes of Quebec, brought forth a number of comments.

Mrs. Hilton, representing Nova Scotia, protested against the use of American text books in history, one in question devoting only nineteen words to Canada's part in the Great War. Arising from the national S.F.W.I.C. report on federation of industries, a plan read by Miss L. Yeo of Prince Edward Island, as a practical step in promoting Canadian industries, was proposed in a resolution. This was to the effect that provincial conveners of standing committees on the subject compile a table of the industries of their respective provinces under the headings: Things we wear, things we eat, things we use and miscellaneous, and that these be exchanged, in order to promote inter-provincial trade. Mrs. A. Ogilvie of South Tuley, N.B., stated that British Columbia was already doing this.

One of the British Columbia delegates announced that the seedmen of her province in appreciation of the work done by the Women's Institutes there, had donated 500 packets of sweet pea seeds for distribution at the convention.

Miss H. V. Burnham, of the Department of Immigration at Ottawa, gave what she called a birds-eye view of immigration work and the various co-operating agencies.

British Liberals Prepare For Next General Election

London, June 20 (Canadian Press Cable).—The possibility of another general election in Great Britain at no distant date is being taken into account by the Liberal Party, which holds the balance of power in the new House of Commons. The Liberal administrative committee yesterday passed a resolution moved by Sir Herbert Samuel, chief organizer, "to maintain and strengthen the organizations in the constituencies."

Tom Mix Has Valet Arrested On Suspicion Of Theft Of Big Sum

Portsmouth, N.H., June 20.—Cal Frydendahl, valet to Tom Mix, motion picture actor, was arrested to-day after Mix had reported to the police that a bag containing cash and securities valued at $75,000, had been stolen from a private car in which he is traveling with the Sells-Floto Circus.

A GREAT AND GROWING INDUSTRY.

MUCH ALREADY HAS BEEN SAID and written about the value of the tourist trade to Canada; but it has grown to be such an important economic factor in our annual revenue that it now must be regarded as a great industry.

Canada's great natural assets—her picturesque scenery, the diversity of lake, forest and river, the many large districts still remaining in their natural state, the healthful and invigorating climate, the charm of the Canadian winter and its distinctive sports, the Old World lure of French Canada, attract tourists in ever increasing numbers. The presence on our southern border of the United States with its dense population possessing in a high degree the leisure and means to travel, the ease of communication between the two countries, the large automobile population, the relative cheapness of an automobile holiday in Canada for the average American family, and the close interlocking of business interests between the two countries result in a very large travel over the border. Canadians, too, are attracted by the larger United States cities with their theatres, museums, etc., and the more "settled" scenery, while large numbers of well-to-do Canadians visit United States winter playgrounds in the south.

That Canadians realize the economic importance of this traffic is evidenced by the large sums spent on highway construction and advertising, and by the good accommodation provided by hotels, tourist homes and camps. In addition to the direct value of the expenditure of tourists, there follows the wider diffusion of knowledge of Canada's resources and increasing investment in them.

It is impossible to obtain a direct record of tourist expenditures, and even a rough estimate is extremely difficult to make, since visitors to Canada are of all classes, engaged in different activities or forms of recreation, remaining for varying periods with expenditures ranging from very small to very considerable amounts. Various methods have been adopted by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics for obtaining a general idea of the amount and value of this trade. The first estimate was issued in 1926, showing the value of the trade from 1920-1926. The survey of each succeeding year has introduced improvements in detail and reduced possible inaccuracy.

The expenditure of tourists from other countries in Canada in the years 1920 to 1928 was approximately as follows:

1921	86,394,000
1922	91,086,000
1923	130,977,000
1924	158,876,000
1925	177,882,000
1926	186,791,000
1927	215,763,000
1928	250,501,000

It is pointed out by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics—from whose report these figures are taken—that statistics prior to 1924 are not exactly comparable with later ones. Those for the years 1924-1927, however, have been revised on the basis of the methods adopted for 1928, and are, therefore, comparable.

FOUR THOUSAND YEARS OF A DREAM

IF YOU STUDY ANCIENT HISTORY you sometimes learn some curious things. Prof. James H. Breasted, director of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago, has found that the Egyptians of 2000 B.C. had political and social problems just like our own.

In politics, they were using the cry "Turn the rascals out!" and wondering if it would ever be possible to set up a government that would be both just and efficient.

In their social organization they were despairing of the future and bewailing the sins of the younger generation, the follies of the rich and the general uselessness of trying to improve the lot or raise the intelligence of the ordinary man.

Professor Breasted reveals that the Egyptians of 4,000 years ago, crying for a governmental house-cleaning, were completely confident that only the rascals who sat in high places could be removed, everything would be serene, forever after.

"How little could these earliest social dreamers foresee that after 4,000 years their spiritual posterity would still be looking fondly for a new age—after they had turned the rascals out!" he remarks thoughtfully.

Probably these ancient Egyptians finally succeeded in throwing their set of rascals out; and afterwards, beyond doubt, they were puzzled and disillusioned to observe that things went on much as before. For one of the hardest things in the world to understand is the fact that all human progress is made very gradually. It is seldom visible to the naked eye. Sometimes, indeed, it looks like the reverse of progress.

But, after all, we do move forward. We still have the same problems that tormented the Egyptians 4,000 years ago; but we are handling them just a bit better. There is a shade more happiness in the world now than there was then; a trifle less cruelty, ignorance and malice.

These old Egyptians dreamed shining dreams of a reign of justice, freedom and peace. They never saw their dreams fulfilled; and we, 4,000 years after their time, have not seen them fulfilled either. But the important thing is that the dreams have persisted. We still have them, and we are still clinging to them.

Despite all the pessimism that is so popular nowadays, we have somehow managed, in these forty centuries, to edge just a little bit closer to that fulfillment. And every man who dreams the old dream and hopes the old hope is, by the mere fact of dreaming and hoping, making the way a little bit smoother for the next forty centuries.

ALL ON HIS OWN

IT IS SMALL WONDER THAT MANY OF the newspapers of Canada—even some of those moderately friendly to the Conservative opposition in the House of Commons—are beginning to ask how it is that only Mr. Bennett has discovered that we have come to "a crisis in our economic history."

It is worth noting in this regard that when the Canadian Manufacturers' Association held its annual convention at Halifax recently the president not only did not mention the tariff—which The Ottawa Citizen describes as the achievement of an extraordinary feat—but, on the other hand, devoted a considerable part of his presidential discourse to the favorable trade conditions which the country is enjoying. Silent also on this question of the tariff—save in a very general way—was the tariff committee of the association. Time was, of course, when these annual gatherings of Canada's industrial executives really seemed to enjoy warning the Dominion that it was headed for the bow-wows and that nothing but tariffs and still more tariffs would avert the catastrophe that was not far ahead. But there is nothing of that now.

As recently as Tuesday, moreover, the retiring president of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association at the organization's annual convention in Regina said that business conditions throughout Canada were good, with every indication of continued prosperity. Then we have the words of Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, on the occasion of the opening of the great Royal York Hotel at Toronto. He said:

Ten years after Government ownership was embarked upon in Canada, the revenues of the privately-owned company (the C.P.R.) were the greatest in its history, its credit at its highest, and its securities selling at extremely attractive prices.

Now, if neither the president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the president of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association, nor the president of the biggest private corporation in Canada has any idea how close we are to "a crisis in our economic history," they all should get into touch with Mr. Bennett and brush up on their knowledge of something with which they ought to be familiar at once.

WHALING BY AEROPLANE

IT IS ALMOST SHOCKING TO READ that a Norwegian company has bought a fleet of aeroplanes with which to hunt for whales in the Arctic.

Whaling is an industry that is redolent of the past. To be sure, most whalers are steam-propelled vessels now, firing their harpoons from guns and towing their catch to factory-like establishments on land in order to reduce the blubber to oil; nevertheless, the business is a link with the past, and the modern whaler is a descendant of the old-timer who went out in famous ships.

But now—the whalers are taking to the air! The very idea of it is incongruous. How the eyes of the old whaler of a century ago would pop out if they could see their profession being carried on from the sky!

HIGHLY MOTORIZED

IF WE USE AUTOMOBILE STATISTICS as the yardstick of British Columbia's material progress since 1918, we fill the role of the most prosperous Province in the Dominion. We are told that ten years ago there were only 15,370 motor vehicles on our roads, while it is fully expected by police authorities that by the end of the present year, or soon afterwards, it may be necessary to arrange for six-figure license plates. On that basis, therefore, there would be one automobile for slightly more than six persons, which would approximately equal the per capita ownership in Ontario, or show a ratio only a little below that for the whole of the United States. These statistics are in themselves unmistakable evidence of the very substantial purchasing power of the population of British Columbia. We are entitled to point to that as proof of our prosperity.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

AMERICAN LAWLESSNESS
The Chicago Tribune

President Hoover has appointed the members of the commission which is to study lawlessness and law enforcement. . . . The commission has its own work to cut out and in that it will be guided by the courage of its majority or by the lack of it. A proper study of the whole field of American lawlessness and of law enforcement if reported to the country honestly and intelligently will be a shock. It will destroy complacency, illusions, and doctrines. It will knock the catch phrases of public morality flat and it will so disturb the preconceptions of the country that it will be denounced. That is why such a report will require fortitude as well as intelligence.

IMMIGRATION DE LUXE
The Christian Science Monitor

The young Englishman or Scotsman who intends to emigrate to Canada to-day is a much more fortunate individual than was his predecessor of twenty years ago. In those days, he had to do a considerable amount of the hustling for himself. It is true there were government agents who did what they could for the newcomer, but any help that was forthcoming was furnished in a somewhat perfunctory manner. All this is changed to-day.

Railway companies, steamship concerns, the British and Canadian governments, these almost vie with each other to do him honor and to smooth his path along the western prairies, and to help him make an honest living. No longer need he become the victim of unscrupulous employment agencies (for such are to be found in all lands). No more need he be imposed upon by heartless employers, willing to benefit by the newcomer's ignorance of the ways of the country. No longer will he be a homeless, bewildered lad looking hopefully around him.

The Overseas League amongst other organizations has been responsible for the change. Some 1,000 young people are to be brought out this year—some of them have probably already started—and they are to be established with responsible farmers. Their progress is to be watched by agents of the league, and in this way they will become an additional source of prosperity to the great Dominion.

A THOUGHT

But the liberal deviseth liberal things and by liberal things shall he send.—Isaiah xxxiii 8.
Liberality should be tempered with judgment, not with profuseness.—Hoses Ballou.

Loose Ends

China hails democracy—even if some houses were in the way—and a few peasants killed themselves—while similar principles are honored in America but in a different manner—and the world's most famous pipes multiply amazingly.
By H. B. W.

WHEN THEY DO THINGS IN CHINA they do them well. When they built a fence around the emperor's empire you could drive a team of horses on the top of it for hundreds of miles. When they serve an egg you can count on it having been stored away for hundreds of years. When they erected a monument to the great Dr. Sun and opened it the other day it was a monument to impress all generations. Approaching the mausoleum, where the remains of China's first president will rest for eternity, the Nationalist Government built a straight road 140 feet wide, eight miles long, running out of the city of Nanking. Eight contractors were employed to lay a mile each of this stupendous highway, soldiers were put to work as laborers and the contractor proceeded to tear down everything in their way.

LOSING THEIR HOMES, which unfortunately stood in the course of the highway, 108 peasants killed themselves in despair. The job went on. It went on until it was discovered that the contractors, in their democratic zeal to honor the great Chinese preacher of democracy, had forgotten to follow the lines laid out for them and the eight separate sections failed to connect, some of them by as much as ten feet. Accordingly, the contractors appropriated more land, tore down more peasants' houses, laid out more pavement to straighten the roadway. One of the new houses, condemned for the road, it is related, belonged to a Nanking university professor. He went to the municipal offices four times to protest, spending $180 on ricksha fares. On the fourth trip the authorities paid him $190 for his house and he donated the ten cents profit to Dr. Sun Yat-sen's memorial fund. In China they know how to honor democracy.

WHILE CHINA WAS thus dedicating itself anew to the famous proposition that all men are born free and equal, something quite different was happening in the land where this principle is enshrined in its declaration of independence and its constitution. On July 4, 1976, delegates of the thirteen original states of America, in Congress assembled, recorded their decision "at: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.' On November 15, 1863, at the dedication of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, scene of a great battle in the Civil War, President Lincoln said: "Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure."

AT THE GRADUATION exercises of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, one of the largest institutions of the kind in the world, Professor Robert Rogers, eminent savant, rose and shattered the peace of the gathering with these pregnant sentences: "I am going to talk to you on the necessity of being a snob, a gentleman belonging to the ruling class. You have got to take the rule away from the bootlegger, the politician, and the man who came up from one sunder button. Put on a front. One of the reasons for Harvard's greatness is that in all her 300 years she has put on a big front. Harvard never apologizes, never argues, never listens to criticism, but goes on calmly putting on her front and gets publicity for that very reason. What applies to the corporation applies also to the individual. You cannot go on the assumption that you are as good as the rest of 'olks. You should take the attitude that you are a d— sight better." Who says there is no progress in this age?

TO THE WORLD AT LARGE, Mr. Baldwin, the former Prime Minister of England, and General Daves, the new Ambassador to Britain, have been known best as inveterate smokers of large black pipes. To the pipes of these gentlemen the world has attached a peculiar interest, amounting almost to affection, as evidenced by the extraordinary publicity they have had in photograph, cartoon and editorial mention in every country. To students who appreciate these more important factors in public and international affairs, there is a fitting fear that with the removal of Mr. Baldwin from Number 10 Downing Street, and the transfer of General Daves from Washington to London, these world-famous landmarks might disappear. Happily nothing of the sort is going to happen.

MR. BALDWIN retires into private life to raise his hogs and play with his second-hand tennis racket well equipped with the more essential of life's tools. During his term as Prime Minister he was presented with no less than 241 large, fat cherry wood pipes of the variety which he has made celebrated in the most remote regions. These, the most tangible and probably the most appreciated rewards he received for his public services, should insure the Baldwin household of a continuous supply of that peculiarly pungent smoke which only a large and fat cherry wood pipe can produce. Critics of Mr. Baldwin's political talents say he smashed the Conservative machine, threw out all the passengers and then crawled from under the wreck and asked who was down-hearted. He could afford to with 241 cherry wood pipes safely installed in his home.

GENERAL DAVES has taken similar precautions. General Daves smokes a strange, sinister-looking, underling pipe, the stem of which enters the bowl at the top instead of the bottom, which General Daves says makes it taste better, and which democratic politicians say is smoked because it is always attracts attention and gets into the newspapers, along with his famous collar, slit in front with a unique v-shaped aperture. Anyway, General Daves has taken 100 of his underling pipes to England for fear he won't be able to buy any there. The two most famous smoke stacks in the world should continue to burn for some time yet.

KIRK'S WELLINGTON COAL

"Does Last Longer"

Brantford Audience Hears Mr. Bennett

Brantford, Ont., June 20.—Hon. R. B. Bennett, Federal Conservative leader, addressed a meeting here last

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The Victoria Daily Times, June 20, 1904

Ottawa, June 20.—Hon. R. Prefontaine, Minister of Marine, has replied to the memorandum on the fisheries questions submitted by Hon. F. J. Fulton and J. P. Babcock. It was understood the minister stated that the expenditures by the Dominion on British Columbia fisheries during the last three years have been $100,000 in excess of the revenue, that the province is not entitled to a share in the Halifax award, and that the policy of the Dominion is to secure by agreement with all provinces absolute control and management of the fisheries. Saturday's baseball game between Victoria and Seattle at Oak Bay might have gone to the visitors had not Jack Rithet raised the spirits of players and spectators alike by knocking a beautiful home run in the third inning. Victoria won 10 to 5.

Boring for petroleum at Stevenson is giving every indication of being a decided success. Gas has been struck at a depth of 923 feet, indicating that oil is likely soon to follow.

John Fannin, founder and until last February, curator of the provincial museum, since its inception in 1886, died this morning in his sixty-sixth year.

The delay in commencing work on the new C.P.R. hotel, which is to adorn what was formerly the unsightly James Bay mudflats, is not likely to continue much longer.

A fierce conflict is raging at Colwood to-day, the occasion being a sham battle in connection with the annual mobilization.

Weather Forecast—Victoria and Vicinity—Mostly cloudy and cool with occasional showers.

night in the course of his tour of southern Ontario.

He expressed it as his view that fruit and vegetable growers and market gardeners were being driven out of business because of the dumping of United States products in Canada. In many cases such products were being sold below the cost of production, he said. They were sent in just as the Canadian season was opening and forced prices down.

He said he wished to ask the government what it intended to do with regard to the Anti-dumping Act, designed to prevent the importation of fruits and vegetables under unfair competitive conditions.

Hoover Is Carefully Studying Tariff As Affecting Canada

Toronto, June 20.—A dispatch to The Toronto Daily Star from its Ottawa correspondent yesterday said:

"It is creditably reported in Ottawa that President Hoover and his chief lieutenants are seeking to modify the tariff increases against Canada. The growth of Empire trade sentiment in Canada as a means of combating these increases is said to have been reported to Washington by the United States legation here and the danger of United States trade with Canada emphasized. 'These reports are now common talk on Parliament Hill, and may have accounted for the Dominion Government postponing action on the United States tariff proposals are stamped with finality.'"

"Initial steps in the government's imperial preference policy for the development of trade with the Empire will be brought down at the next session of Parliament. Details of the actual tariff revision have not yet been worked out, but it is understood the Ministers are most interested in the subject, and will spend most of the summer and fall working on the project."

Lodges to Combine At Memorial Service

The regular monthly meeting of Lodge No. 83 of the Order of the Daughters of St. George was held in Harmony Hall. There was a good attendance of members and one new member was initiated. A delegation of Milton Lodge, Sons of St. George, visited the meeting on business. Plans were completed for the home-cooking sale to be held on June 29 in Spencer's basement, through the kindness of Mr. Spencer. Arrangements were also completed for the annual memorial service for the annual memorial service, Sunday, June 30, for which the three lodges will combine: Victoria, No. 83; Princess Patricia, No. 258, and Milton Lodge, Sons of St. George, No. 311.

Strawberry Social—The ladies of the First Baptist Church, under the co-operation of Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, will hold a strawberry and cream social in the Sunday school room, on Friday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock. Under the co-operation of Mrs. Robt. Macintosh, splendid programme has been arranged. The proceeds will be used to help defray delegates' expenses to the convention.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH IS SCENE OF A SMART WEDDING

Miss Isabella Rose Mildenhall and Mr. Allan David Ballantyne Wed at St. Luke's

St. Luke's Church, Cedar Hill, was the scene last evening at 8 o'clock of a pretty wedding, when Rev. S. Ryall united in marriage Isabella Rose, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mildenhall, Ruby Road, Mount Tominie, and Mr. Allan David Ballantyne, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David T. Ballantyne, North Quadra Street.

For the occasion a profusion of summer flowers graced the church, the decorations being the handwork of Mrs. H. K. Prior and friends of the bride.

The service was fully choral. The bride party was met at the entrance to the church by the choir, which preceded them up the aisle singing the hymn, "Lead Us, Kindly Father," with Mr. Harold Davis presiding at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was smartly gowned in a ivory satin fashioned with long, tight-fitting sleeves, long-waisted bodice and skirt made of three tiers of the material. On one side was arranged a large satin ribbon bow. Over this gown was draped a handsomely embroidered veil, held in place on the head with a coronet of orange blossoms. A cluster of orange blossoms worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day was arranged on her gown. A shower bouquet of Opheila roses, lilies of the valley and white carnations completed the bridal attire.

Miss Isabel Vimpany was maid of honor and wore a frock of shell pink taffeta, made with prevailing long-waist and bouffant skirt. Her hat was of pale pink mohair trimmed with a large bow of pink tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and pink sweet peas.

There were two attendant bridesmaids, Kathleen Rendle and Patricia Kingsberry, who were dressed alike in frocks of shell pink taffeta with butterfly bows at the waist line at the back of the bodice, and each wore picture hats of pink mohair. Their bouquets were composed of pink sweet peas and greenery.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Gordon Ballantyne, and the ushers were Messrs. Clyde Ballantyne, brother of the groom, and George Libby.

During the signing of the register, Miss Dorothy Hartree sang "Love's Coronation."

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held in the Parish Hall, where a large number of guests assembled to offer their congratulations. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving their guests by the bride's mother, who was attired in a beige ensemble, and by the groom's mother, who wore a hat to match, and Mrs. E. W. Andrews, sister of the groom, who wore an ensemble suit of powder blue and hat to match.

Among the many handsome wedding gifts were a silver tea service from the choir of St. Luke's Church, the bride having been organist of the church for the last four years; a silver music box on silver stand from the senior pupils at the Columbia School of Music; and a silver cake basket from the junior pupils of the same school.

On her way to the midnight feast, the bride placed her bouquet on the Cenotaph in memory of her uncles lost in the war.

NEW PROTECTION FOR ALL WOMEN WORKERS DEBATED

Berlin, June 20.—Despite emphatic declarations of prominent individual delegates to the congress of the International Women's Alliance in favor of protective legislation for women in industry, the congress itself postponed its final pronouncement on the principle of legislative protection until 1932.

The postponement of the question, which was raised outside the congress by the creation of the new Women's Open Door International, opposed to such protection, was made in a resolution adopted yesterday and calling for a special conference on the subject to be held simultaneously with the next international congress of the Alliance in 1932.

The resolution, adopted unanimously, proposed that the 1932 conference be arranged by leaders of affiliated women's organizations in various nations "to give an opportunity to set forth on scientific and technical basis the economic and political problems concerning labor legislation in their respective countries."

Two other sections of the resolutions approved yesterday also were unanimously adopted. The first urged recognition "as of special and urgent importance" of the principle of equal pay for equal work by men and women. The second regretted "the tendency of legislation in some countries to restrict the right of married women to engage in paid work" and called upon affiliated women's organizations "to oppose most vigorously this tendency."

A further resolution adopted supported the measures for the assistance of unmarried mothers favoring the policy by which in cases of doubtful paternity "the court decides on one man as the father of the child and forces him to undertake the responsibility for its maintenance."

POPULAR LOCAL GIRL CENTRE OF SMART WEDDING

Miss "Vicky" Redgrave and Mr. Alonzo Richard Lavell Married at St. Andrew's

Before a large assembly of friends, an exceedingly pretty wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Cathedral, when Rev. Father Cyril Evans united in marriage Victoria Kathleen (Vicky), youngest daughter of the late Inspector Stroud Lincoln Redgrave and of Mrs. Redgrave, 619 Hardinger Avenue, and Mr. Alonzo Richard Lavell, only son of the late Mr. Michael Lavell and of Mrs. Mary Lavell, of New Westminster.

A pleasing floral arrangement of fragrant summer blooms was arranged on the altar and leading to the front pews, all being the handwork of the Misses Margaret O'Neill, Mary Ebbas-Canavan, Maud Hartree, Augusta McKay and Mrs. Frank Hunter.

As the guests were assembling at the Cathedral, Miss Margaret McKay, the organist played "Evening Star."

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Stephen Harold Redgrave, the bride made a fascinating picture in her wedding gown of ivory duchesse satin, fashioned with long, tight-fitting sleeves, shirred bodice of Honiton lace, ankle length at the back. On one side was arranged a cluster of white silk roses and lilies of the valley caught with short streamers of white velvet ribbon. Her veil was of soft silk and fell about her face in a style, with clusters of orange blossoms worn by the bride's great grandmother on her wedding day. She carried a prayer book, with ivory covers which had belonged to her grandmother. Hanging from the prayer book were white satin streamers, tied at the end and holding in place small rose buds.

Miss Helen (Nellie) Redgrave, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret O'Neill and Beatrice Hicks, all of whom wore dresses of mauve georgette, made in the same style, with sleeves, long bodice and petalled skirt, the only ornaments being rhinestone buckles. They wore mauve hats to match their frocks.

Little Mary Eileen Cavin made a dainty flower-girl in a frock of Nile green flat crepe, hand embroidered with flowers in pastel shades and frilled skirt.

The bridesmaid's bouquets were composed of mauve and pink sweet peas and brier cliff roses, while the basket carried by the flower girl was filled with mauve and pink sweet peas. The groom was supported by Mr. Elmar Anderson and the ushers were the bride's brother, Mr. Alonzo Redgrave, of Oaklands, California; Mr. Armand Foudrier and Mr. Frank Broughton.

During the signing of the register, Miss Maud Hartree sang "Ave Maria." At the home during the reception, Miss Dorothy Hartree rendered "Love's Adoration."

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where about one hundred guests were received by the bride and groom. Mrs. Redgrave assisted in receiving, wearing a smart gown of black tulle, crepe, trimmed with touches of white and a mauve hat, while Mrs. Lavell, mother of the groom, wore a becoming model gown and hat to match.

The bride and groom stood beneath a beautiful arch and floral wedding bell, the decorations throughout the house being carried out in a color scheme of mauve and white. The handsome three-tier wedding cake occupied the centre of the upper table, which was arranged with mauve sweet peas, streamers of mauve and white hanging from the chandelier to the corners of the table.

The bride and groom left for the Mainland, en route to Los Angeles, by motor, the bride traveling in a smart ensemble of mauve georgette and navy blue, with a mauve stitched crepe de Chine hat and fox fur.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavell, on their return to British Columbia, will make their home in Kerrisdale, Vancouver, where Mr. Lavell is manager of the branch of the Bank of Toronto.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Lavell, of New Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Redgrave, of Oakland, California; and Mrs. F. E. Bennett, of Seattle.

MRS. ALONZO RICHARD LAVELL (nee Redgrave)

Miss Thelma Sippell was guest of honor at a delightful tea and shower held at the home of Miss Jessie Casselman, 510 Fifth Avenue W., Vancouver, the hostesses being Miss Glad Thompson and Mrs. Casselman. During the afternoon an electric coffee urn was presented to the bride-elect by her many friends present, after which Mrs. R. M. McDuffie and Mrs. Crawford Gregg sang two delightful duets. The tea table was covered with a bowl of pink roses and tall pink tapers and was presided over by Mrs. H. M. Derbyshire and Mrs. H. L. Turnbull.

The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Esquimalt Lagoon, was the scene of a happy gathering yesterday afternoon when about fifty young people of the Central Baptist Church held their first picnic of the season. The afternoon was spent in games, and at 6 o'clock a picnic supper was served, followed by a pleasing ceremony as a surprise for Mr. W. Hick and Mrs. G. Hodgins, who will be married on Saturday. A bridal ship, decorated with flowers and flags, and slowly steered across the water, was the center of the inner bay, made a pretty scene in the sunset, and as the honored guests were standing at the water's edge, watching the dainty craft, Miss Isabel Walmesley and Mr. Albert Renfrew, dressed as bride and groom, presented them with a decorated basket filled with gifts from the assembled guests. Sitting around the beach fire, community singing formed the evening's enjoyment.

NEW PROTECTION FOR ALL WOMEN WORKERS DEBATED

Berlin, June 20.—Despite emphatic declarations of prominent individual delegates to the congress of the International Women's Alliance in favor of protective legislation for women in industry, the congress itself postponed its final pronouncement on the principle of legislative protection until 1932.

The postponement of the question, which was raised outside the congress by the creation of the new Women's Open Door International, opposed to such protection, was made in a resolution adopted yesterday and calling for a special conference on the subject to be held simultaneously with the next international congress of the Alliance in 1932.

The resolution, adopted unanimously, proposed that the 1932 conference be arranged by leaders of affiliated women's organizations in various nations "to give an opportunity to set forth on scientific and technical basis the economic and political problems concerning labor legislation in their respective countries."

Two other sections of the resolutions approved yesterday also were unanimously adopted. The first urged recognition "as of special and urgent importance" of the principle of equal pay for equal work by men and women. The second regretted "the tendency of legislation in some countries to restrict the right of married women to engage in paid work" and called upon affiliated women's organizations "to oppose most vigorously this tendency."

A further resolution adopted supported the measures for the assistance of unmarried mothers favoring the policy by which in cases of doubtful paternity "the court decides on one man as the father of the child and forces him to undertake the responsibility for its maintenance."

It will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Lillian K. Brown, who for several years on the staff of Christ Church Cathedral as deaconess and Sunday school teacher, to learn that she has passed successfully her final examinations in social service at the University of Toronto. After a short vacation in Victoria, Miss Brown will return to Toronto as a member of the staff of the Neighborhood Workers' Association, a family welfare organization of that city.

SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCENE OF WEDDING OF MUCH INTEREST

Miss Elizabeth Helen Wace and Commander Victor P. Alleyne, R.N., Married

The chapel of the Shawnigan Lake School was the scene yesterday afternoon of a pretty wedding when Right Rev. C. de V. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia, united in marriage Elizabeth Helen, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cyril Wace, of "Pias Panthoel," Cobble Hill, to Commander Victor Percy Alleyne, R.N. (retired), son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Alleyne, of Hiramcombe, Devonshire, Eng. The chapel was beautifully decorated with delphinium, foxgloves and roses.

As the bride party entered the church they were met by the school choir, which preceded them up the aisle singing, "Lead Us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in her wedding gown of ivory satin, fashioned with long bodice effect and long sleeves. A grille of ivory molre ribbon was finished with a deep soft bow at one side. Her wedding veil of Brussels net was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, and fell over her face as she entered. Her bouquet was of deep cream roses tied with gold roses.

Miss Marion Bullock-Webster and Miss Sheila Gillespie were bridesmaids in similar frocks of soft delphinium blue with circular flared skirts and they wore picture hats of blue mohair, trimmed with velvet ribbon to match. They carried bouquets of pink and mauve sweet peas and fern.

Mr. C. L. H. Brown was best man. During the signing of the register the choir sang "O Perfect Love." Following the ceremony, which was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Wace, wearing a smart gown of grey crepe de Chine and black Bangkok hat, assisted the bride and groom in receiving the guests.

Commander and Mrs. Alleyne left by motor for Nanaimo, en route to the mainland, where the honeymoon will be spent. For traveling the bride wore a becoming frock of blue flat crepe, a beige Kasha coat and blue hat.

On their return, the bride and groom will live at "Raeburn House," Rockland Avenue.

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS REGARDING WHOOPING COUGH

Whooping cough is a miserable ailment for any child to suffer and a dangerous one for the small baby. When it breaks out in any neighborhood, it runs riot because mothers are all too often careless about keeping their children separated from other children during the first week or so of a cold. At this early period the whoop isn't present, though the child may cough some, and it is at this time that most authorities believe it to be most contagious. As soon as the child begins to whoop, it is a very careless and ignorant mother who would expose other children by letting her own child run wild, so that probably most of the cases of whooping cough are caught during the early weeks.

The disease is caught by direct contact with someone having the disease. It is not possible for a second person to carry it, so it is said. The worst stage is the "vomiting period" when the child has difficulty keeping anything at all on his stomach. The mother will find that the average child can retain food if given directly after one of these vomiting spells, and that six small meals a day are more easily retained than three heavier ones. The food should be the same to which the child has been accustomed.

The use of a sung binder about the abdomen is of great comfort to the child. It must not be too tight, but the support it gives is helpful to the child who is coughing and vomiting excessively. Drugs should be given only upon the advice of a doctor. To dose a child with patent cough medicines at this time is a dangerous practice.

Morse, Wyman and Hill in their book, "The Infant and Young Child," have this to say of whooping cough: "It is a general principle in medicine that, when a great many different drugs are recommended and used in the treatment of a disease, there is not one of them which is particularly efficient. It can be said, however, that, in most cases of whooping cough is somewhat benefited by drug treatment and the spasms made less severe. There is, however, no drug that will cure whooping cough. Once developed, it must take its course, and all that can be done is to treat the child symptomatically, and, if possible, to diminish the number and severity of the paroxysms. All children with whooping cough should be kept out of doors as much as possible, as children who are out of doors all day undoubtedly have a better chance of recovering than those who are not. The parents of children with whooping cough must be very careful to remember the rights of others, and should keep their children away from other children. They should not take them in public conveyances or public places. Children with whooping cough should wear a conspicuous arm band or some other designation, so that other mothers can keep their children away."

Women's Institutes Urge Fostering of National Events

Saskatoon, Sask., June 20.—Alma and accomplishments in promoting Canadianization, foster national events and arousing interest in Canadian literature were set forth in the report read to the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada by Mrs. J. B. Lebaron of North Hatley, Que., at the biennial convention here to-day.

Furthering interest in Canadian literature, writers, textbooks and periodicals had been advocated throughout Canada by the institute. New Brunswick was co-operating with the Historical Society in an effort to get one Canadian history for all the provinces. It would be written by a Canadian for Canadians, and would be a true story of Canada's discovery, battles and present position in Empire and world affairs.

FLAG FOR EVERY SCHOOL

Prince Edward Island and Alberta had been urging a flag for every school, papers on Canadian history, art, scholars, famous Canadian women and men.

Quebec had been the most active in promoting the cause of Canadian periodicals, the report observed, because their poetry, fiction, articles, history, biographies and reproductions of beautiful paintings had received recognition at home and abroad. Canadians should be familiar with the fact that "we have writers whose first editions are valuable."

The report directed attention to a newspaper editorial which stated that the Canadian field for Canadian periodicals and, in a measure, Canadian newspapers, was being lost; that Canada's periodical press was being strangled to death by United States competition. The article had stated that 28,000,000 American magazines were sold in Canada every year at a face value of $3,700,000. Of these, 11,000,000 copies entered the country through the mails on annual subscription basis, the remainder being sold on the news stands.

The editorial concluded by saying: "During the same year about 12,000,000 Canadian magazines were sold in Canada with a face value of $1,300,000. In other words, for every ten Canadian magazines we buy nearly twenty-one American; for every dollar we spend on the native product we spend nearly $2.85 for an imported magazine. Besides that, we import 1,000,000 American agricultural papers, and 1,250,000 professional and trade journals, besides uncountable millions of Sunday newspapers."

HISTORICAL RECORDS

Ontario has been particularly active, the report continues, in making records of prominent pioneers, industries, customs developments and landmarks, and had co-operated with the provincial archivists. This work had also been carried on in the more settled parts of Alberta, but the policy of that province had been the encouraging of active Canadianization among new settlers rather than research into past glories. The report urged support of organizations specializing on good citizenship among young people such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and Junior Red Cross.

"I went into the work of the Federated Institutes of Canada a Blue Nose and came out Canadian," said Miss Annie Stuart, Grand Pro, the popular national president, in her address Wednesday evening. The spirit of this organization, which is a family of nine children, she continued, is advancement and unselfishness. This is illustrated by the fact that Ontario was willing to give equal voting power to the smallest provinces, the principle being

FETE HELD BY FORMER PUPILS

St. Ann's Academy Scene of Garden Party Yesterday

A strawberry fete was held yesterday afternoon by the Association of Former Pupils of St. Ann's Academy, in the lovely old grounds of the convent, and from 3 o'clock until 6 a constant stream of past and present friends and pupils arrived to take part in the delightful programme.

Mrs. K. T. Hughes, president, received the guests, who were also welcomed by a number of the Sisters, and an able committee under the con-venership of Miss Levesque carried out the serving of refreshments. Strawberries, ice cream and afternoon tea were served from the rustic summer-house.

During the afternoon all were delighted with the pretty exhibition given by some little children from St. Ann's kindergarten. Two groups of children appeared on the tennis court in a dainty action-song, "Kitty of Coleraine," the costumes and winsome charm of the small singers being very appealing. A hat drill, in which tinkling bells punctuated the rhythm of the exercises, proved equally pleasing.

The Association of Former Pupils, which was further augmented by the matriculants of this year, who were formally introduced, felt very encouraged with the success of the afternoon. The cause of home economics in the convent will benefit by the amount thus collected.

CHRIST CHURCH WEDDING SCENE

Miss Annie Bennetts and Major Stanley R. Welton
Married By Dean Quainton

An exceptionally pretty wedding was solemnized at Christ Church Cathedral yesterday afternoon at 1.30, when Annie, only daughter of Mrs. A. J. Bennetts, was united in marriage to Major Stanley R. Welton of Victoria, the Dean of Columbia Very Rev. C. S. Quainton officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with summer flowers by girl friends of the bride.

The choir met the bride party at the west entrance of the church and preceded them down the aisle singing the "Voice That Breathed or Eden."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. H. P. Rutter, wore a charming frock of ivory georgette fashioned in long waisted bodice, a wide flounce of Chantilly lace forming the uneven hemline and wearing the traditional wedding veil, which was wreathed in orange blossom in cap effect. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern.

The bride was attended by Mrs. A. W. Reeves of Vancouver and Miss Alison Chow, who were attired in lovely frocks of primrose and Nile green georgette respectively, with moirai hats en suite. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and sweet peas.

The groom was supported by Mr. C.

E. Whitney-Griffiths of Metcoshin. Messrs. H. G. Kennard and Mr. H. Harrison acted as ushers. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Fred Titcombe of Vancouver sang "All Joy Be Thine." Mr. Harold Davis presiding at the organ.

After the ceremony a reception was held at "Halcyon," 912 St. Patrick Street, where the bride and groom received the good wishes of their friends under an arch of roses and wisteria.

They were assisted by the bride's mother wearing a gown of navy crepe de Chine and hat to match, and Mrs. S. Rutter in a gown of navy flat crepe and hat to match.

The table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake and vases of pink roses. The bride wore a white georgette dress with tailored coat and close-fitting French hat of the same shade and Stone Marten stole.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton left on the 4.30 boat for Seattle en route to California. For traveling the bride wore a beige georgette dress with tailored coat and close-fitting French hat of the same shade and Stone Marten stole.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton will take up their residence at 912 St. Patrick Street on their return from the south.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. A. W. Reeves, Mrs. Fred Titcombe, Mrs. Frank Boyle and Mrs. J. H. Young of Vancouver, and Mrs. J. H. Bennetts of Nanaimo.

MRS. A. GALBRAITH AND MISS A. SMITH
MADE LIFE MEMBERS

Mrs. Angus Galbraith and Miss Alice Smith were presented with life memberships in the Women's Union of the First Baptist Church at its meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The presentation was made on the appearance of Mrs. Galbraith, reported that the parcel for India had been completed.

The following were appointed to attend the Baptist Convention to be held in New Westminster, in addition to the members of the Provincial W.M.S. Board, Mrs. Spofford and Mrs. A. Galbraith, Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mrs. Strachan, Mrs. Beveridge and Miss Wiswell.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL

It was decided to hold a strawberry and cream social in the schoolroom on Friday evening, when a delightful social evening is expected. Mrs. Robt. MacIntosh is arranging the programme. The proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the delegates to the convention.

The pastor, Rev. J. Strachan, addressed the meeting on the subject of "Prohibition," comparing present law with former legislation. A most pleasant and profitable hour was spent and a hearty vote of thanks given the pastor for his excellent address.

MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN*WAYSIDE VANDALS

One Mother Says—
My girls returned from a motor ride with branches of peach blossom which their hostess had broken from a tree by the wayside. I did not say anything at the time, not wanting to criticize one whose hospitality they had enjoyed. Later, however, when we were out in the country, I showed them trees in flower and explained that the blossoms would later be fruit and that it was a waste to take them just for a fleeting decoration. We looked at the dogwood, too, and talked of how it seemed destined to be exterminated by thoughtless folk who gathered it for floral use and then throw it away because it wilted quickly. These youngsters will be content in future to enjoy the blossoms on the growing trees.

Willing and Stein Favored to Reach P.N.W. Golf Final

Present Champion and Former Western Titleholder Reign Favorites; Willing Pressed to Win Over Rudie Wilhelm 4 and 3 Yesterday; Thirty-six-hole Matches Beginning to "Tell" on Several Players; Mrs. S. C. Sweeny, Vancouver, Favored to Retain Women's Championship.

Seattle, June 20.—Eight supreme men golfers were ready today for the quarter finals of the thirty-first annual tournament of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association, each with one eye on the 1929 championship.

Sixteen women, the class of the northwest, anxiously awaited the starter's whistle for the second round of match play in their championship flight, while many other men and women golfers were scheduled to tee off in several other consolation flights.

After two days of match play, experts were passing the word around that Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, defending titleholder, and Bon Stein of Seattle, former western amateur champion, were the men to watch. Both are powerful players who can stand the trials of the strenuous up-and-down-hill course. Thirty-six holes each day over the rugged, mountainous fairways have been "telling" on several of the players.

Dr. Willing was taxed to the limit yesterday by Rudie Wilhelm of Portland before the latter was eliminated, 4 and 3.

Willing was forced to play his best to win. The dentist stroked the thirty-six-hole round in 2 under par. Stein was given a full day's rest when his opponent, Russ Smith of Portland, defaulted the match when he failed to report.

Mrs. S. C. Sweeny of Vancouver, B.C., is a favorite to retain her title in the women's division.

Yesterday's results were:

Bon Stein, Seattle, won by default from Russ Smith of Portland.

Lloyd Nordstrum, Seattle, defeated Robert White, Spokane, 7 and 6. Frank Dolp, Portland, defeated Lee Stell of Seattle, 10 and 8. Chandler Egan, Medford, Ore., defeated Dixie Plesner, Seattle, 9 and 8. C. Spiera, Seattle, defeated Vincent Dolp, Portland, 6 and 5. Malcolm MacNaughton, Portland, defeated R. M. Dahl, Seattle, 10 and 8. Dr. Willing defeated Rudie Wilhelm, Portland, 4 and 3.

Roy Moe, Portland, won by default from Whaley, Seattle, when the latter broke his thumb while playing a brassie shot to the twelfth green. He was even with Moe at the eleventh hole.

A CLOSE CALL
Mrs. Sweeny had a close call in her match with Mrs. Janet Drysdale, her clubmate, when the latter forced her to the eighteenth hole. Mrs. Drysdale had the champion 2 down at the ninth hole, but weakened on the last nine to drop the contest. Mrs. Sweeny won 2 up by taking the seventeenth and eighteenth.

In the second flight of the men's Class B championship, Clyde Dunn of Seattle, a low medalist, fell before the steady playing of Oscar Sund, 3 and 2.

Old Country Cricket

London, June 20.—Centuries have been scored by Wally Hammond, Gloucester cricketer, in his last three matches. Against Cambridge last week he scored 213, not out, and for England against South Africa Tuesday his total was 138, not out. Yesterday he piled up 128 runs against the champions of Lancashire, and was unbeaten when play ceased for the day.

Scores in first cricket matches yesterday were: Somerset, 163; Middlesex, 152 for five wickets.

Surrey, 261; Cambridge, 76 for one wicket.

Gloucester vs. Lancashire; Gloucester, 291 for three wickets.

Kent, 118; Northants, 266.

Glamorgan vs. Hampshire; Glamorgan, 468.

South Africa, 265; Yorkshire, 14 for two wickets.

FAST RACES RUN DURING POLICE MEET

Wally Scott, Vancouver, Captures 100-Yard Handicap; Clarke and Humber Win

Chief John Cameron, New Westminster, Breaks Record; Dancing Good

Breasting the tape scant inches ahead of "Chuck" Copeland, Wally Scott, Vancouver sprint flash, carried off first honors in the 100-yard dash handicap at the Police Sports at the Willows yesterday to win one of the most exciting events of the day. Jack Clarke came from behind to take the 220-yard event and Bruce Humber, promising young local boy, led the field in the 440-yards open.

Doug. Bone, Victoria's "flying cop," starred in the policemen's closed sprint while Chief John Cameron of New Westminster shattered existing Canadian police records for the sixteen-pound hammer event with an exhibition throw of 167 feet 2 1/2 inches.

WINS JUMPS
Arthur Thornton Fell had little difficulty in winning both the high and broad jumps. In the former he cleared the bar like a bird at five feet seven inches and led the field in the broad jump with a mark of twenty feet six inches.

In the inter-city police half-mile relay, Vancouver's first runner opened up a gap of thirty yards between himself and Victoria's representative. The Terminal City team held the advantage and won by a good margin over the local men.

Getting away to a fast start, Scott, scratch runner, left the other competitors at the post in the 100-yards open handicap. He seemed to beat the gun, but there was no recall signal.

Ten feet from the tape he caught Copeland and passed him just at the finishing line. Lew Clark finished third.

CLOSE RACE
With a sixteen-yard advantage at the start, Bruce Humber led the competitors in the 220-yard event up to thirty yards from the tape. At this point he cracked and Jack Clarke ran evenly with him to within ten feet of the tape. At the finish Clarke threw himself forward to win by less than a foot. Jack Woodley came third.

Maintaining a steady pace for the entire course, Bruce Humber won the quarter-mile open handicap. He held the lead for the first 200 yards, but lost it to Skillings. However, 100 yards from the tape he again forged ahead and took the event by a slight margin from "Chuck" Copeland.

Pete Tyson, Glen Robbins and Frank Waring won the bicycle races, which were marred by a painful accident to George Farmer in the three-mile event.

Tyson kept among the leaders in the mile contest and uncorked a burst of speed at the finish to beat George Farmer by eight feet at the line. Richard Jackson came a close third.

ROBBINS FIRST
After keeping with the field for the first two and one-half miles, Glen Robbins, winner of the Colonist Cup last week, opened up on the last lap and pedaled home well in front of Bev. Peden, second place man. Jack Taylor, who was among the leaders on the last turn of the first lap, skidded and went down. Farmer, coming right behind him, piled up on the bicycle and prostrate rider. Farmer broke the front wheel of his machine and was taken from the track with injuries to his neck.

John Cameron, recently-appointed New Westminster chief, and former Canadian Olympic athlete, carried off all laurels in the weight and javelin throwing sections of the meet.

In the races for sailors, blond Charlie McDonald proved the outstanding sprinter. With an easy stride and long reach, McDonald pounded his way to victory over the 100, 220 and 440-yard courses.

FINE DANCING
A particularly entertaining feature of the programme were the competitions staged by youthful dancers of Victoria and Vancouver.

Accompanied by Piper Cameron, the young boys and girls gave graceful interpretations of Highland Flings, Shean Trews, sailors hornpipes and Irish jigs, performing the intricate measures of the different steps with exceptional precision.

Eleanor Armstrong and Annie Crowe of Vancouver gave exceptionally fine performances, as did Adeline Grant, Madge Wallace and Gladys Acreman of Victoria.

The dancing was exceptionally close in many events, but the city girls triumphed in winning five of the eight competitions.

Results of the athletic and dancing contests follow:

FRATERNITY OF MOOSE OPEN TO ENTIRE FAMILY

Fathers, Mothers, Sisters and Brothers All Eligible to

Lodge Losing "Social Club"
Aspect to Become Social Service Headquarters

Fraternism, until recently, has been regarded as strictly a man's affair. Its paraphernalia—regalia, secret hand-clasps, signs, and mysteries—have always been considered to be exclusively for men only. Perhaps some people, believing that women could not keep a secret, felt that the doors of the lodge room would forever open only to men. All who are so minded are in for a surprise if they have not followed the recent development of fraternism. Women to-day are fast becoming as active in fraternal work as their husbands, brothers, and sons.

TO THE FAMILY
Indeed, we can go farther. Some of the leading secret societies in the country are opening wide their doors to all the members of the family. Fraternism is a family institution. It can be compared in this respect with the church. In it there is a place, of course—as always—for the adult male members of the family. Mother and sister, too, are welcome and have their work to perform, and even the children can now give this excuse for not weeding the garden or washing the dishes, "Aw, ma, I gotta go to lodge meetin'."

All the above is particularly true of fraternism as organized and practiced by the Loyal Order of Moose—the youngest fraternal organization in the country, but one of the greatest in membership and in financial strength. About twenty years ago this organization had but 200 members. Today, it has nearly 1,000,000 members, and an important reason for its stupendous growth in this short time is the determination of its leader, James J. Davis, its Director General and U.S. Secretary of Labor, to make it a family affair. In building up this fraternity and in planning its many activities—Mooseheart, Moosehaven, Extension Service, Social Service, and so on—there is work for every member of the family—father, mother, sister, and brother. And because there is work for all of them it naturally follows that those who perform acceptably are suitably rewarded. There is a ladder on which every one may climb to success through fraternal endeavor. Thus: For father: Beginning as a Loyal Moose, he may win promotion to Mooseheart Legion, the Fellowship Degree, the Alumni Association, and, ultimately, the coveted rank of Pilgrim.

For mother: Beginning as a member of the Women of Mooseheart Legion—a Legionnaire—she may win promotion to the Friendship Degree. Junior: Starting as a Junior Legionnaire, he may gain promotion to the Junior Moose, and later, through the example and inspiration of his father, become a Loyal Moose and—eventually—a Pilgrim.

And daughter: Starting as a Junior Legionnaire, may become, through the example and inspiration of her mother, a member of the Women of Mooseheart Legion and, finally, win promotion to the Friendship Degree.

SOCIAL SERVICE
In the light of this, the whole approach of a Moose "salesman" to a prospect is fundamentally different from the approach of the oldtime fraternalist. To-day Moose sales talk is expressed in terms of a social service that answers affirmatively that ancient question of the human race, "Am I my brother's keeper?" To the prospect who thinks in terms of self, this line of talk is therefore "fishy." But to the other kind, it suggests a programme to which, if normal, he is ever to subscribe, to which he has subscribed in the past, and in the years to the number of almost 800,000.

It will be interesting to follow the progress of this new kind of fraternism—Moose fraternism—in coming years. So far, it spells success—enormous success.

The fraternalists of this country have recently had to stand for a lot of good-natured—joshing. Along with the Babbitts, the one-hundred-per-centers, and the reformers, the "joiners" are the target for much criticism from those who might loosely be designated as "wise crackers." Perhaps it is because the target is so large and, therefore, so easy to hit that so many are taking a shot at it. There are more than 20,000,000 "join-

AGED MOOSE FIND HAVEN OF CONTENT

Fraternity Provides Opportunity in Florida Colony For Aged People

Happy Inhabitants Work and Are Paid; Retain Their Self-Respect

It happened that they belonged to the Moose. Fifteen years ago not one of the aged men and women at Moosehaven, Florida, the home for aged and infirm members of the Loyal Order of Moose, thought he or she would ever need help from others in their later years. But life frowned upon them. Their ship never came in and the rainbow, under whose end they always expected to find the pot of gold, faded in the shadows. Buffeted by life, they might have been obliged to accept the so-called charity of almshouses, where husband and wife would be separated after long years together. But the man was a Moose. And the woman, too, was a Moose. And the Moose have established Moosehaven, on the banks of the broad and placid St. John's River in Florida. There this great international fraternity, numbering more than 700,000 members, procured a site in Orange Park, about fourteen miles from Jacksonville, and founded Moosehaven, the "City of Opportunity."

BUNGALOW COTTAGES
There are nearly twenty buildings at Moosehaven—and more are being erected constantly. There are halls, dormitories, and bungalow cottages. They front on graceful boulevards under the great live oaks, festooned with picturesque Spanish moss. Approximately 200 elderly men and women from all over the United States have been gathered here in a balmy climate to spend their last days. In this home men and women who set out to meet life hand in hand are not torn apart as they would be in a public almshouse. Nor do they have the stigma of an almshouse attached to them. They not only have comfortable homes together but do work and are paid for it. The inhabitants of this city have become once more sufficient unto themselves.

With the opportunity to earn their livelihood these elderly folk retain their self-respect. The heated hall, the garden, the chicken farm, the bamboo grove from whose wood novelties are made, all are operated by the elderly people. One man repairs the shoes, another has charge of the poultry, the women mend the clothing and do the housework, and so on. Food is prepared by three of the members in the model sanitary kitchen.

ALWAYS BUSY
There is much activity at Moosehaven. The men and women always are busy and are proud to keep so. A recent purchase by the Board of Regents was a small near-by farm on which vegetables for the kitchen can be raised.

There is a resident physician at Moosehaven and Dr. J. N. Fogarty, head of the famed East Coast hospital at St. Augustine, himself a Moose, has arranged to admit Moosehaven patients to that hospital.

While many of the affairs of Moosehaven are decided by the inhabitants themselves, its administration is vested in a Board of Regents. Moosehaven is the particular enterprise of the Mooseheart Legion of the World—members of the second degree in Moosehood. More than 150,000 Legionnaires have pledged themselves to see that their elderly brothers and sisters never will come to want.

Mooseheart Is Happy Colony For Children

Parklike Estate Is Home and School For 2,000 Children of All Ages

Mental and Physical Health Developed and Crime Made Impossible

Pass through Mooseheart, the Child-city of the Loyal Order of Moose, thirty-seven miles west of Chicago, and you will find it like the park of some fine estate. Great trees arch over winding walks that charm you to their very end. The drives are a pleasure for every enthusiastic motorist. Amid verdant lawns a hundred or more cottage homes and other buildings peep from beneath the trees, their red tile roofs lending contrast to the greenery. The stately campanile—the reception house—with its symmetrical Italian tower from which the chimneys ring out, rises near the broad entrance. Beyond it are other buildings—the high school, the administration building, Roosevelt auditorium, the vocational shops, dormitories, a central heating plant, and out beyond, across broad fields, the modern farm.

A CHILD-CITY
The Child-city is situated on a vast tract of 1,023 acres, on the Fox River, between Aurora and Batavia, Illinois. Once the site was prairie land on which the husbandman raised his humble vegetables. But the product of the land now is cast in a more glorious mold—that of sterling men and women for the workaday life of to-morrow.

A calm and peaceful atmosphere pervades the city. Tragedy and the horrors through which most of the children have passed have been left at the gates. Happiness reigns here. More than 2,000 children, from the ages of one to eighteen, have found not only a home but food and clothing and comfort and a chance to become upstanding men and women.

Each is being fitted for life's battles. Each is given a high school education and a trade. Until each is competent to go out from the city and take up

WIDOW SUES FOR SHARE IN RICH QUARRY

This division entitled the firm of Eberts and Taylor to virtually a half interest in the island, and on that a full undivided quarter was held for the estate of the late Mr. Justice Eberts, contended counsel for the plaintiff. At the finish of a short hearing judgment was reserved. Mr. Justice Gregory stopped the trial at this point to remark that a statement made by himself in reference to the consent order of 1922 in another case might have been misinterpreted. What he had said, continued His Lordship, was that he had signed an order the full purport of which he had not realized at the time. This was no reflection on the counsel engaged in that hearing, he stated, and his remarks had not been intended as a reflection on anyone.

The trial resumed with H. J. Crane, Registrar of Titles in the Land Registry Office, on the witness stand for the plaintiff. At the close of evidence the prior action by Henry Rudge and others against the Haddington Island Quarry Company Limited in Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, the hearing was adjourned until June 28, when argument by the five counsel in the case will commence. Mr. Justice D. A. Macdonald, taking that hearing, had prior engagements in Vancouver, but will return on June 28 for the conclusion of the case.

ORGANIZATION PROTECTS BOTH OLD AND YOUNG

ere" on the rolls of our leading fraternalities in North America alone. These pay annually into the treasuries of their orders a good $500,000. What for?

WHY A FRATERNALIST

Perhaps we can satisfactorily answer the question, why a fraternalist? by examining the claims of one of the youngest, yet one of the strongest, fraternal organizations in the world—the Loyal Order of Moose. This fraternity claims that it gives protection to all the members of the family from the cradle to the grave. Let's see. Here we find that, like many other fraternities, the Loyal Order of Moose provides benefits for members and their families in case of sickness or death. But it does more—much more. If a Moose in good standing dies, leaving no estate, his wife and children, under certain clearly defined and wise conditions, are sent to Mooseheart. A word about this famous Child-City.

MOOSEHEART

Mooseheart is located on the banks of the Fox River, thirty-seven miles west of Chicago. It contains more than a thousand acres. It is virtually a built-up city of some two hundred substantial houses, with miles of well paved and well lighted streets, and all the other requisites of a well appointed, well governed, progressive and modern community. Here the children of the deceased

IS IN CHARGE OF MUSICAL CONTESTS

W. A. KETTLE

Sergeant-at-Arms of the local lodge, who is in charge of the musical contests during the Moose convention.

Moose, and their mothers, are given shelter, food and clothing; but most notable of all, the children are given a high school education and instruction in a trade. "Every child is entitled to a high school education and instruction in a trade," is the profound belief of James J. Davis, founder of this city of Mooseheart, Director General of the Order and U.S. Secretary of Labor. And this principle, firmly believed in by all the members of this Order, has helped to make the Loyal Order of Moose what it is to-day.

NO POOR HOUSE

Again, no Moose driven to economic dependence in old age, need fear the hopeless lot of the pauper. Another great city has been built by the Moose. It is Moosehaven, located in Florida near Jacksonville, on the banks of the St. Johns river. This second city is inhabited by old folks of the Order upon whose shoulders the heavy hand of affliction has fallen.

Yet another service is rendered to the members of the Loyal Order of Moose. When it is found impractical to receive the wives and children of deceased members at Mooseheart, or to send the old folks to Moosehaven, their needs are met through Moose-Heart, or Service, in the communities in which they dwell.

WILLING TO HELP

There is undoubtedly many a man who belongs to this Order, yet is not attracted by its benefits and does not look upon lodge life with any great enthusiasm or contemplate with concern the future of himself or the members of his family. Yet, he is an ardent and enthusiastic Moose fraternalist. Why?

Here is the answer: The astute leaders of this fraternity believe that, if you honestly show the average man how a few dollars each year can be spent to the very best advantage—none of it wasted—in the amelioration of human distress, this average man will willingly provide the few dollars. Surely the story of their success in building up the Moose proves the accuracy of their reasoning.

his own livelihood, he need never harbor fear of the vicissitudes of the outer world. A thoughtful fraternity has made the way clear. They all are children of deceased members of the Moose—entire families often, who would be parted were they left to the questionable charity of the usual orphan's homes. But it is a hard and fast rule of Mooseheart that families must not be separated. That was the clarion cry that inspired James J. Davis and his associates to found Mooseheart on July 27, 1913.

A HUNDRED MOTHERS

More than a hundred mothers are there to care for the children, to mend their clothes, to kiss away childish tears, to encourage them in the problems of childhood. Teachers, instructors, guardians, are there to help them. Aside from the training of mind and hand, the children are provided necessary medical attendance by a resident physician in the modern hospital on the grounds. A dentist constantly performs his duty toward them and nurses not only inspect each child at stated periods, but record the growth and health of each child from the moment he enters the city.

Pure water, good food, plenty of milk each day, suitable clothing, regular hours for sleep, for physical recreation and play—all these are making physically strong and mentally sound citizens of to-morrow from the 2,000 children of all ages there.

Mooseheart does not employ a uniform—except for the band and the military companies on parade. Each child is allowed to choose at the general store whatever clothing he needs. Consequently, there is no stiffening effect on the children, and when a group of girls and boys moves across the green lawns on the way to school, the appearance is that of an animated flower bed.

LOTS OF FUN

There are many sports, according to the season. Among them, in summer, there is baseball, tennis, football, basketball; in winter, sliding and skating and skiing. An artificial lake gives opportunity for swimming and boating in summer and hockey in winter. The city once was a vision of James J. Davis, director general of the Loyal Order of Moose and United States Secretary of Labor, and his associates. Now it is a reality where suffering childhood finds a haven. Instead of permitting dependent children to fall into ways of vice and crime, via the gang route, it is building good citizens for to-morrow. Mooseheart is one of the enterprises the Loyal Order of Moose is promulgating for the benefit of humanity.

Sandy Beach Inn and Golf Links Limited

At the Inaugural Dinner of the Ferry Service between Sidney and Steveston, B.C., the C.P.R. was eulogized as being a Company who worked from

"FAITH"

All of you who work in the interests of the City of Victoria to erect a hotel at Sandy Beach have "FAITH" plus a backlog of security for your action.

The Company Will Have Two Sources of Income

1. From the Sale of Lots.
2. From the Revenues From the Hotel.

"FAITH"—that the Tourist Trade will grow. In 1922 not one tourist car came into Victoria, in 1928, 38,000 came by ferry and wanted "some place to go."

"FAITH"—that we will interest sufficient to put up at a 30-room inn, surrounded by "The Playground of the World."

"FAITH"—such as displayed in our Island by outsiders when they put on the Ss. Elaine to duplicate the Ss. Patricia (when the Patricia only carrying 11 cars was traveling half empty).

"FAITH"—to add to the Empress Hotel.

"FAITH"—that when we have the tourists here we can amuse them for a number of days.

WHERE on the Pacific Coast has ONE property the advantages of lake and sea—in PROTECTED waters. A VIEW at the crest of mountain ranges, of the Pacific, Shawnigan Lake, and, turning in the other direction, Saanich Inlet, the Islands in Canadian and American waters.

The Vancouver Yacht Club will visit us when we tell them we are ready.

WE BELIEVE the Dividend Requirements will be covered MORE than TWICE from ONE source alone.

Units $10, consisting of 1 share 7% Preferred SANDY BEACH INN AND GOLF LINKS LIMITED and 10 shares of Common, MALAHAT PARK LIMITED.

New Name For Old Custom

Iowa City, Ia., June 20 — "Petting," described as a new name for an old custom, was approved by Dr. W. E. Blatz, professor of physiology in the University of Toronto, speaking at the Child Welfare conference here. He declared parents should not try to stop their children from doing it, but should allow it in their homes without snooping and trying to prevent it. A "conspiracy regarding sex," he declared, "is breeding a whispering chorus of vulgarity."

TARIFF SHAPED FOR ALL CANADA, NOT ON REPRISAL BASIS, STATE MINISTERS

CANADA FOLLOWS OWN COURSE

Mr. Lapointe, speaking of the policies advocated by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, during his present tour of southern Ontario, said:

"The remedy he suggests is that we should adopt United States methods in our fiscal policy. But our ideas and ideals are Canadian and British and we won't follow American methods. We will shape our policies, fiscal and otherwise, at Ottawa. We won't take them from Washington."

"We are satisfied with Canadian methods and British doctrines and if necessary we will find other outlets for our trade. We have maintained Canadian interests. Since 1921 have not the Canadian people been satisfied with the way our financial policy has been shaped under Mr. Robb, whose budgets were proud to mention during the last election? We have not been dictated to by United States theories. We have tried to meet the problems of Canada as conditions were at the time. British preferential trade treaties have been part of our policy."

"The Opposition lately has been coming to adopt that policy, but the British preference has as its fathers the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Hon. W. S. Fielding," said Mr. Lapointe. "From the start it was successful and our exports to Great Britain increased $75,000,000 the first year. Last year they reached $44,000,000 and we bought only $193,000,000 of British goods. But if you expect the nations of Europe to give you trade, you must buy from them. Trade, after all, is exchange. In view of the figures I have just quoted I can understand the complaint from some quarters about British goods coming here which they have had to sell us."

"We have four free trade treaties with other nations and our exports as a result were $220,000,000 in 1928."

Mr. Lapointe remarked that the United States would still require Canadian products "on tariff or no tariff."

HARMING CANADA

Mr. Lapointe expressed regret that some political leaders saw fit to suggest in public addresses and otherwise that Canada was not prospering. The figures told the true story. Such speeches could only damage the country.

"We will continue to shape our financial policies on a national basis in the interest of all sections of Canada," Mr. Lapointe continued. "We legislate not for one class, but for all classes and groups of the Canadian people."

"A country which is as large as Europe can not hope to live to itself, nor to erect barriers against the rest of the world."

"The future is with us. Let us not look at the past for reasons of doubt and despair, but to the future for reasons of hope and belief. God and nature are with us and nobody is able to fight for us against God and nature. Our guarantee of success is within ourselves. We continue to improve our methods of production and you may be sure our prosperity will continue."

TRADE EXPANSION

Hon. W. D. Euler also spoke of Canada's growing trade, citing many countries which were apparently anxious to deal with Canada, and declaring this country should stimulate further commerce with those countries which were seeking it.

Expressing disappointment at the utterances of Hon. R. B. Bennett during his present tour of southern Ontario, Mr. Euler expressed the opinion that the Conservative leader had chosen a very inopportune time for his pessimistic utterances.

"There are pessimists abroad in this section of Ontario, preaching disaster coming to our country and ruin before long," he said. "Some leaders do not seem to learn the lessons of their own experience. The people of Canada have become so used to hearing cries of 'Wolf, Wolf' that they are no longer afraid of them."

"I am disappointed in Mr. Bennett. I had hoped he would strike a new note, but he has not. Instead he has invited the people to dance to a gloomy tune. His recent speeches are almost word for word the speeches he delivered in 1921, 1925 and 1926. And they won't be any more successful now than they were then."

"It is a most inopportune time to preach that doctrine, when all the latest statistics show unprecedented progress and prosperity. In all the fields of activity the past year has been the most prosperous in the history of Canada."

NOT DEPENDENT

Hon. J. C. Elliott in his address also examined criticisms aimed at the King Government by Mr. Bennett in respect to United States tariff matters. The greatest indictment voiced by the Conservative leader was that the United States had raised its tariff wall, said the Minister of Public Works.

"Mr. Bennett says we must change our tariffs because some other country has changed its tariffs," Mr. Elliott said. "He says we are becoming dependent upon the United States in trade matters, but would not his tariff policy be totally dependent upon the tariff policy of that country? The tariff policy of this country should be adjusted to meet the needs of Canadians alone. It should be adjusted, irrespective of the actions of any other country, and that is the policy of the King Government."

BRITISH MUST NOT ABANDON INDIAN TASK

Col. C. McG. Withers, Late of Indian Army, Tells Patriarchs of India's Problems

Force of Circumstances Thrust Onerous Duties on British People

"My thirty-two years in India have taught me that no one man can know India, yet people who write books know all about Hinduism after spending thirty-two days, if they have them to spare," declared Col. C. McG. Withers, C.B., late Indian army, in an address this afternoon before the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel.

"Why are the British in India? By force of circumstances, not because we want to stay there," the speaker asserted. Col. Withers told of the compulsion of British prestige. "We dare not let go," he said, declaring British got no direct advantage such as tribute but had done untold good. Famine was unknown although crop shortages might exist locally. Various tracts had been made richly productive.

"Mother India," the famous book of Katherine Mayo, was described as being "in great part unadulterated filth but at that tells only half of the real truth."

FIRM FOR BRITISH

Col. Withers told of the steadfast refusal of the independent native princes to support any form of independent native administration of British India. The rulers gladly co-operated with the King-Emperor in advancing India. Much of the trouble in India published and originated in dissatisfied office-seekers, supported by secret aid from Soviet Russia, the speaker said.

Proposals for reform in administration of India had been misread by the natives as presaging early withdrawal of Britain and the sections among the peoples commenced organization in preparation to seize control.

OTHERS WAIT CHANGE

If Britain withdrew it would be inconceivable that India should be left alone by other nations. Col. Withers said it was a "toss-up" whether Japan or Russia would be first to step into Britain's vacated place.

The remedy would be found in slow elevation of the common average of character. The educational system established by the British before its centre upon university training and the advancement of the people must positively precede self government.

As guests of the Rotary Club the members of the Welsh football team attended the luncheon and were given a warm welcome when introduced by Alderman James Adam. The players rendered two choruses after R. Webb had led in community singing.

BERRY PRICES ADVANCE SOON

Five Cars Daily to Roll to Prairie Markets From Saanich

Local Price Increases Monday When Processing Surplus Commences

At least five cars of Saanich strawberries will leave Victoria daily during the peak of the season, destined to prairie consumers, H. E. Tanner stated this morning.

To-day the combined Saanich and Gordon Head Associations shipped four cars to Calgary, where they will be forwarded to points needing supplies. The temporary low prices in effect locally will be withdrawn after Saturday, when the processing plant will be in readiness to operate at capacity.

With local wholesale price down to $2 during the present week, each crate has returned only seventy-eight cents to the grower. The distribution of the marketing cost of $1.22 is as follows: Picking, 50 cents; association charges, 20 cents; crate, 27 cents; commission to brokers, 25 cents.

Telegraphic reports from the prairies show that the cars are arriving in ideal condition, as a result of the rigid inspection and careful handling in the field and pre-cooling of the fruit in Victoria prior to loading the cars.

RACING WATERS CLAIM VICTIM

John Moore Drowns at Gorge Despite Heroism of Chum

Lads Unsuccessfully Dare Dangers of Gorge Tidal Rip

John Moore, fifteen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Moore of 2883 Inez Drive, was drowned at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Gorge, when his dug-out canoe capsized in the tidal race under the Gorge bridge.

The tragedy is the first drowning accident in the Gorge waters this year. The body has not yet been recovered, despite dragging operations carried on by Chief Rankin, Constables Cummings and Heydon of the Saanich police, and Chief Acreman and Constable Hodnett of the Esquimalt police, who were joined this morning by a third boat, manned by provincial officers.

Heroic efforts at rescue were made by Raymond Sugden, fourteen-year-old chum of young Moore, who was in another canoe. After jumping into the water fully dressed, Sugden only succeeded in saving his friend when utterly exhausted and in danger of losing his own life.

According to Raymond Sugden, the two lads had been canoeing in the upper waters of the Gorge and decided to try to buck the incoming tide rip under the Gorge bridge. The current was too strong to be forced, however, and both lads drew in to the north side of the bridge, intending to force their skiffs through by thrusting against the footpath railing there located.

Sugden did not see Moore overbalance, his first intimation of disaster being sight of his chum's canoe floating overturned. He made his way to the landing stage near saw friend come to the surface and plunged to the rescue as Moore again went under. Later Moore again came to the surface, but too far for Sugden to reach him before he went down for the last time.

DEEP SEA, COASTWISE SHIPPING AND RAILROAD NEWS

Two Japanese Ships Now En Route Here From Orient Ports

With cargo and passengers two Japanese vessels, now en route to Victoria, according to advance schedules, are the hands of the local agents.

The N.Y.K. freighter Tokiwa Maru, due here June 29 from ports in China and Japan, has 155 tons of cargo for discharge at this port, including fifteen bales of raw silk and nine cases of manufactured silk goods. For Seattle the ship has a heavy general cargo, including a valuable parcel of raw silk.

The O.S.K. liner Alabama Maru is due here July 1 from China and Japan, having sailed from Yokohama last Monday. She is bringing in a fairly large list of passengers and a good-sized cargo.

Outbound to the Orient the liner Africa Maru of the O.S.K. fleet will sail from Seattle and Victoria on June 28.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, June 20.—Seven vessels operated through the General Steamship Corporation are listed for Seattle or other Puget Sound ports during the week. These are the Lemuel Burrows, the French liners Georgia and Zenon, the Cheve Maru and the Yell Maru, the Anten and the Felice. Three of the ships were to carry full lumber cargoes for the east coast and Japan.

GREAT ACTIVITY PREVAILS AT SHIPBUILDING PLANTS ALONG VICTORIA WATERFRONT

Victoria Motor Boat and Repairs Works at Bay Street Plant Employing Thirty Men on Construction of Small Skiffs and Fishing Vessels Two Ships Being Built at Pacific Shipyards.

Activity is marking the season's work among the smaller shipbuilding and repairing plants along Victoria's inner harbor, it was learned by inquiry this morning.

Several new boats are being built, and a large number have been and are under repair, in preparation for the season's work. Most of the boats are fishing craft, being prepared for the fishing season off the west coast of Vancouver Island, which will be in full swing towards the end of the present month. Already a large number of ships have been dispatched to the fishing grounds off the coast, while several will depart each day from now until the end of the month.

At its plant on Bay Street, the Victoria Motor Boat and Repairs Works, has on the ways two twenty-six-foot launches, being constructed for the Hydrographic Department of the Federal Government. They will be used on the survey steamer Lilloet. Sixteen horsepower Easthope engines will be installed in each.

SKIFFS BUILDING

Eighteen skiffs for use on seine fishing boats are also under course of construction at the Victoria Motor Boat Works. Fourteen of them are for the B.C. Packers' Association of Vancouver, one for the Northern Packing Company of Vancouver and three for the Island Packing Company of Victoria. All will be twenty-four feet in length. They are being turned out as fast as possible, and one or two are being sent up the coast each day. They will all be completed by the end of the month.

The six fishing boats owned and operated off the coast by the Canadian Packing Corporation of Victoria were recently cleaned, painted and generally overhauled by the Victoria Motor Boat Works. A new tail shaft was installed in the Victoria, while the Lewac, the Amiac, the Ribac, the Canadac and the Gradac were given a general overhaul. Three of the ships have left for the coast, the remainder being at Ogden Point for finishing touches.

Also at the Bay Street plant are the fishing ships Beech Head and Oceanic for general repairs. The Beech Head has had a seventy-five horsepower fishing ship Beech Head and Oceanic left the plant early this week for the west coast fishing grounds. The small ship Minnie Berna, which was seriously damaged by fire some months ago, is being given extensive repairs by the same firm.

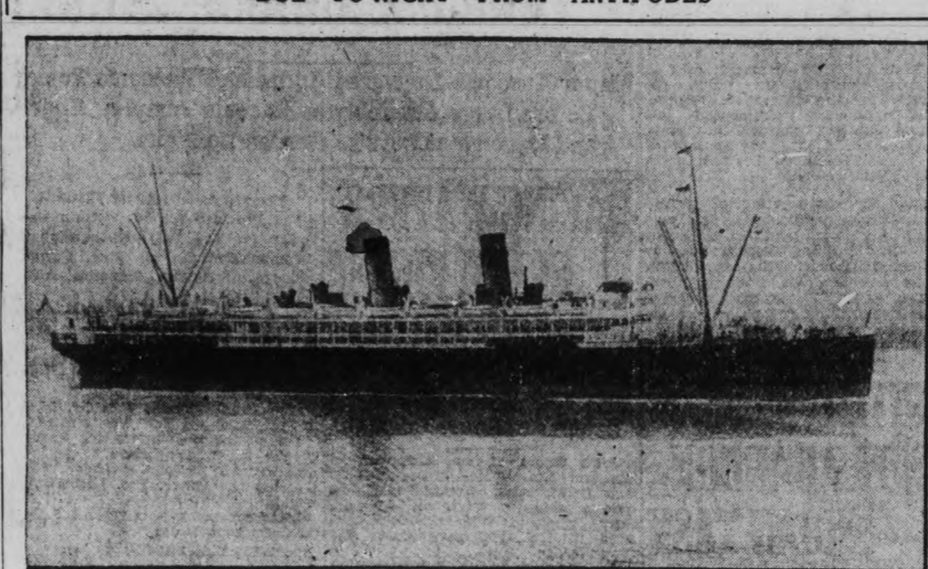

BUSY TIME

There are thirty men working at top speed at the Bay Street plant. The season promises to be one of the busiest of many years with the prospects of many more boats being turned out before the end of the summer.

SIXTY-FOOT SEINER

Two ships are under construction at the Pacific Shipyards on Store Street, one a fishing ship and the other a pleasure boat. For the Canadian Fishing Company a sixty-foot seiner, with a fifteen-foot beam, is now in the water having cabin accommodation built. She will be turned over to her owners at the end of the month. A sixty-five horsepower Washington-which is scheduled to arrive at the William Head Quarantine Station this evening at 5.30 o'clock from Sydney, Auckland, Suva and Honolulu with a large passenger list and a heavy cargo. She will berth alongside the Rithet Piers about 7 o'clock and will be ready to sail for Vancouver at midnight.

DUE TO-NIGHT FROM ANTIPODES

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, June 20.—William P. Roth and A. C. Dierick, president and vice-president respectively of the Matson Navigation Company, were at their local offices yesterday after a visit to Washington, D.C. The two officials laid plans for three new passenger liners before Government officials, but what action was taken the steamship executives did not know.

The Fore River plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation was low bidder for the construction work.

Thirty-six Japanese Boy Scouts from Sacramento embarked yesterday on the liner Siberia Maru for a tour of Japan. Besides the Scouts, there were forty other persons in the party, including parents of the boys and Scout Master George F. Murray. The Scouts will spend about forty days in Japan, returning here on the Taiyo Maru.

Estep Diesel engine has been installed and cabin accommodation arranged for the skipper, an engineer and a cook with room for about four men in the crew's quarters. The ship has been under construction since about May 1. A thirty-four-foot pleasure cruiser for the first boats and up to 1 a.m. to-morrow for the faster craft. After running in rough seas at the first the yachts were having easier going farther north.

SHELTON BOAT LEADING RACE

Kless of Washington Town Forging Ahead in Race From Olympia to Juneau, Alaska

Ketchikan, Alaska, June 20.—One hundred miles south of Ketchikan, the Kless of Shelton, Wash., was leading the ten yachts in the Capital to Capital race from Olympia to Juneau.

Reports last night showed the Kless of Juneau, to be about a half an hour ahead of the Maide, of Seattle. The Kless was next, three hours away, running at eight knots. Behind them, four to ten hours apart, in the order named, were the Kittiwake, of Olympia, the Bolander, of Seattle, the Mary Anne, of Seattle, the Koyala, of Olympia, the Winifred, of Olympia, and the Marlin of San Francisco.

All racers were expected to arrive in Petersburg during this morning. The last lap from Petersburg to Juneau, 100 miles distant will start at 10 p.m. for the first boats and up to 1 a.m. to-morrow for the faster craft. After running in rough seas at the first the yachts were having easier going farther north.

Princess Patricia Brings Vancouver Excursion Party

On her first excursion trip of the year, the C.P.R. steamer Princess Patricia arrived in Victoria to-day shortly after noon with a large excursion party from Vancouver aboard. Five hours were spent in this city and the ship left on the return trip at 6 o'clock.

The Princess Patricia will be used for excursion work during the summer months, so successful was she in this line last year. Each Friday and Saturday throughout the season she will carry excursion parties from Seattle to Victoria. These excursions were particularly popular last year, and it is expected large numbers will again take advantage of them this season.

California Gold Mines May Roar Again

When the gold mines of California were at the height of their production, it was estimated that the output of the Sierras at the rate of nearly $25,000,000 per year, there arose a conflict between the mining interests of the mountains and the great agricultural areas in the valleys below, which verged on civil war before the miners capitulated. The result of this strife was the closing down of hydraulic mines then producing nearly half of the gold output, employing hundreds of men and representing more than $100,000,000 of investment.

And there this grave with its golden content has lain through more than four decades. A few mines built dams to withhold the debris and were permitted to continue under restricted methods, but engineers have estimated that upwards of $600,000,000 of gold is held in the exposed and tested gravel banks of those old mines awaiting the day when engineering science should evolve a plan by which these mines could be worked without repetition of the disastrous effects of the former era. That his day has come is the present contention of the mining fraternity of California.

Great dams are to be built, according to the plan now urged, at strategic points in the Yuba, Feather, Bear and American rivers, with great tributaries to the Sacramento and all draining areas which include rich gravel deposits. These dams are to serve a four-fold purpose: flood control, hydro-electric power, development, irrigation and, by impounding the debris, effect the restoration of activity to the long suppressed mines. The State and Federal Governments are asked to advance the funds for these projects, the money to be returned within twenty-five years by the mines, sale of electric energy and revenues from irrigated lands.

ELKS HONOR J. W. LORIMER

Provincial Convention Gives Victorian Highest Office on Vancouver Island

The annual convention of the British Columbia Elks Association, held at Duncan on Monday and Tuesday, unanimously named J. W. Lorimer as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for Vancouver Island for the coming year.

Mr. Lorimer is a past exalted ruler of Victoria Lodge No. 2, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of Canada and Newfoundland. The nomination will be given official approval by Grand Exalted Ruler, Gerald Sims of Ottawa when the Grand Lodge assemblies at Kamloops in August.

Twenty-five lodges of British Columbia were represented at the convention, which was presided over by J. McMurphy of New Westminster. Trail was chosen as the convention city for 1930.

The delegates were welcomed to Duncan by Mayor H. F. Prevost and C. F. Davis, M.P.P., and were entertained on Tuesday evening at a banquet and ball at the Knights of Pythias Hall. Visits were paid to the lumber camp of the Cameron Lumber Company Limited and to the Chemainus mill of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company Limited.

Business sessions were opened by Exalted Ruler E. W. Lee of Duncan Lodge. Officers elected were: President, George Roadlight, Vancouver; first vice-president, A. Harris, Kamloops; second vice-president, Norman Lowe, South Vancouver; third vice-president, H. L. Jackson, Trail; Secretary, Robert Chance, North Vancouver (re-elected); trustees, J. J. Stewart, Victoria; L. E. Marmont, New Westminster, and John A. Catherwood, Dewdney.

Victoria delegates to the convention were: Alex. Peden, Richard Metters, J. J. Stewart and B. Best. Reports of the proceedings will be presented to the Victoria Lodge this evening at 8.15 o'clock.

DIKE SYSTEM IN SOUTH MANITOBA TO BE COMPLETED

Ottawa, June 20.—Work on the construction of a $100,000 dike system in southern Manitoba, close to the Minnesota boundary, has been declared by the International Joint Commission to be harmless to any United States interests and beneficial to the Manitoba area affected. In all probability the offices of the commission here announced yesterday, the work would be recommenced in the immediate future.

Some time ago construction was impeded by order of Federal authorities on a request from the United States. It was the contention of Minnesota farmers that the proposed dike system, calculated to prevent the flooding of Manitoba farm lands, would throw flood water of the Roseau River back into United States territory and thus flood the Minnesota agriculturalists. This argument was considered by experts and their findings were laid before the commission in session at Reaseau, Minn., and Vita, Man.

The investigation disclosed the dikes would not in any way injure the Minnesota country where an extensive system of drainage has been built. The loss of time in construction of the dikes will make necessary some extra expenditure, for the machinery of the contractor has been removed from the scene of operations. Originally the work was calculated to entail an expenditure of $85,000. It will now cost the Government of Manitoba and the Federal Government more than $100,000. The Dominion Government, the commission believes, will pay the difference in cost.

REPORT SETTLERS BROUGHT FOR CITY WORK IS DENIED

Montreal, June 20.—Informed that a Toronto and a Winnipeg newspaper had published articles stating there were many unemployed in the former city, and that large numbers were being brought from cities in England by the Canadian Pacific Company under the assurance that employment could be easily obtained in Toronto, Col. J. S. Dennis, chief commissioner of the Department of Colonization and Development of the railway, issued the following statement:

"The articles in question state the number of unemployed in Toronto is being increased daily by English immigrants who have failed to remain in farm employment, and that large numbers have been brought forward by this company from cities in England under the promise that employment could be easily obtained in Toronto. May I say definitely that all colonists leave Great Britain. We do not bring anybody from the British Isles or elsewhere with promises or assurances of employment in any city in Canada. The officials of this department on the other side of the Atlantic would not for one moment disregard the rigid instructions they have regarding recruitment and colonists are sent forward for farm employment only. Our long and successful experience in colonization work has been of such value to Canada that we would not think of jeopardizing the outstanding record of the department by doing such a pal-ably unwise thing as to make promises which would not be fulfilled.

"I would point out that if for any reason a colonist coming forward under the auspices of this department is not satisfied with the particular farm work which has been provided, our officials are ready at all times to arrange replacement on another farm."

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

Winnipeg, June 20—Wheat: Prices continued their upward trend today, making the sharp advance of about three cents over the previous close. There were small reactions from time to time as longs were taking profits but these recessions uncovered good support. The buying was mixed in character. Mills were good buyers early and seaboard houses also took a little wheat but the chief buying appeared to be by locals and Chicago.

Offerings were not burdensome. Canadian wheat exports overnight were placed at 500,000. There were again bullish reports from Oklahoma, Kansas and other winter wheat areas with indications that yields were light compared to prospects of two weeks ago, while reports from spring wheat states were somewhat less favorable, rains being needed over a large area.

In the Canadian west there were light scattered showers in southern Manitoba but very little participation elsewhere and the situation is becoming somewhat serious in central and northern Alberta, also in some districts of Saskatchewan where the soil is light and only showers have been received.

With the strength in the future market, the demand for cash was inclined to drop. Spreads early were unchanged but they eased off later with buyers very cautious and not disposed to load up under present conditions.

With Washington advice constructive, the actual pressure on the market is light. With prices at this level and the possibility of a much smaller world crop than last year, the trade is becoming more sensitive to bullish news features. The Canadian crop is from two to three weeks backward and will have to run all the hazards of frost and hot July winds and later the danger of frost.

Coarse grains—While oats and barley held firm and rose followed wheat, these markets were more or less dull. There was a little domestic business in oats but the demands for barley appears to have fallen flat for the time being, while there was nothing doing in rye.

Flax—Market was higher, especially in the new crop features. Trade was very light but there was very little offered.

Celia Thaxter Grew Up In Lighthouse On Rocks

Little Celia Thaxter was happy, for she was moving to a new home, and to her it seemed the most wonderful home in the world. Her father had just told her about it, and she did not know that he thought he was telling her bad news.

He had failed in business, had not known what to do, and finally had been unexpectedly offered the position of keeper of a lighthouse on rocky shoals off the New England coast. He explained to Celia that they would live out there alone, and she would have no playmates.

When they moved to the lighthouse, they were busy at first getting settled. Then Celia began to feel just a wee bit lonely. Then one day a bird was dashed against the lighthouse and she took it in her arms for it, and helped mend its broken wing. She had found a playmate.

After that she was never lonely. She fed all the birds that came to the shoals and made pets of many of them. She loved the lighthouse so much that she never wished to leave it.

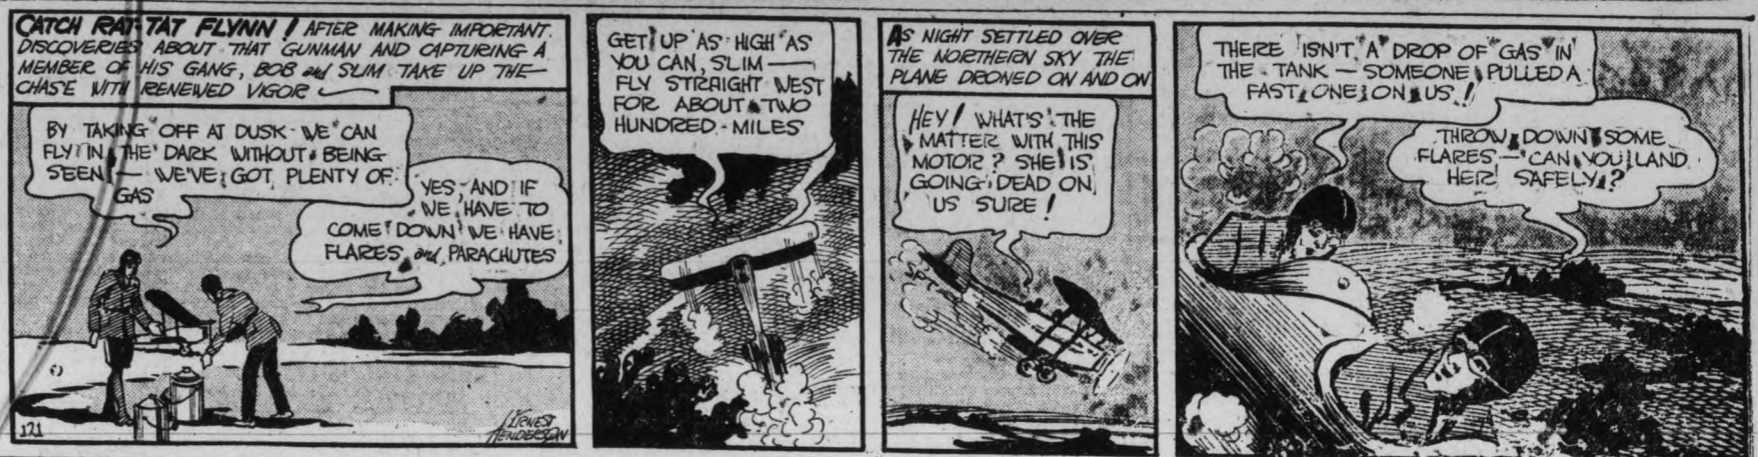

Celia Thaxter, born ninety-three years ago to-day, wrote many poems for children, the best-known being "The Sandpiper," which is in many school books.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily And Susie's Sunshade

(Copyright, 1929, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Susie Littletail was a rabbit girl who lived with her brother Sammie not far from Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow. In the early days Sammie and Susie had lived with Uncle Wiggily himself.

But this was before Uncle Wiggily married and had to go live with his own little bunny boys and girls. So now Sammie and Susie had a home of their own, with their father and mother.

However, Susie never got over loving Uncle Wiggily, and every chance she found she would hop to his bungalow to give him a piece of candy. I must tell you about this candy business before I tell you of Susie's sunshade, or parasol.

Susie would hop over to Uncle Wiggily's bungalow, perhaps just as the rabbit gentleman was getting ready to go adventuring, and Susie would smile kindly and say:

"Uncle Wiggily, I should like to give you a piece of candy, but I haven't any."

"Oh, it's just lovely!" cried Susie.

"That's too bad," Uncle Wiggily would say, "because I am very fond of candy, and I should like some, above everything else just now."

"Would you?" Susie would exclaim. "Well, then, if you'll give me five cents I'll hop to the store and buy me some candy and I'll give you some."

So Uncle Wiggily would give Susie maybe five cents, or even six cents, and she would buy all the candy she could and bring the rabbit gentleman back a gum drop or a marmalade or a piece of licorice, or whatever he wanted.

So that's what I meant when I said Susie would often hop over to the bungalow to give Uncle Wiggily some candy. Wasn't it queer?

But one day when Susie had hopped over to the hollow stump bungalow, just as Uncle Wiggily was hopping out, the little rabbit girl said nothing about candy, which was very strange indeed.

"I wonder if Susie can be ill?" thought Mr. Longears when he waited a moment and Susie said nothing about candy. "I hope not."

And then, in a moment, he found out what was on Susie's mind. For she said:

"Oh, dears! I so very much want a sunshade!"

"Why do you want a sunshade, Susie?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Because," replied the little rabbit child, "just now as I came hopping through the woods, I saw some real little girls having a picnic under the trees. One of them had a lovely, pink parasol to keep the sun from freckling her nose, and I want one, so much. Oh, dear!"

"Do you mean you want a freckle, Susie?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"No, of course I don't," she quickly answered. "But I so much want a pretty green sunshade. Can't I have one, Uncle Wiggily?"

Now Uncle Wiggily wanted to make Susie happy, but he knew her father as a mother did not want to spend too much money, and parasols cost quite a bit, even in rabbit money.

So Uncle Wiggily was thinking how he might get a sunshade for Susie without spending much money when he happened to hop up from where he and the rabbit child were standing beneath a horse chestnut tree. And when Uncle Wiggily saw the broad leaves of the tree with their long stems, he said:

"I will soon have a sunshade for you, Susie."

"How?" asked the little rabbit girl. "Three of these broad, flat, green leaves I cut from this horse chestnut tree will make a fine parasol for you, if I tie the stems together," said the rabbit.

"Oh, that will be lovely!" cried Susie, clapping her paws. "But who will climb the tree to break off the leaves which grow high up? I can't and you can't."

"Here comes a character who is a good tree climber," laughed Uncle Wiggily. Along came a scampering Johnnie Bushytail the squirrel. He soon scrambled up the tree and gnawed off three large, broad ones. He dropped them to the ground and Uncle Wiggily tied the stems together with a piece of twisted grass for a string.

"There is your sunshade, Susie!" said Mr. Longears, handing the green parasol to the rabbit child. And Susie walked along the path, holding it over her head like the little picnic girl in the woods. And the sun didn't make freckles on Susie's nose.

"Oh, it's just lovely!" cried Susie. "Thank you, Uncle Wiggily! And thank you, Johnnie!" She was very happy, and so was Mr. Longears and the squirrel boy. And if the pussy cat doesn't unwind the spool and tangle the thread all up in knots, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Jackie's present.

"There's a gentleman to see you."

"That's strange, show him in."

"I wonder what he wants?"

"MR. MOORE SENT ME TO SEE YOU TO JOIN THE RESEARCH SOCIETY OF ANCIENT HISTORY."

"WHAT'S HE GOT TO DO WITH IT?"

"HE'S THE FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY."

"LISTEN, JACK, ARE YOU GONNA FIGHT AGAIN?"

"GO WAY, MUTT! DON'T ANNOY ME! CAN'T YOU SEE I'M TERRIBLY BUSY? RUN ALONG!"

"BUT I WANT TO KNOW, KID! I'M HERE FOR INFORMATION—SO SPEAK UP! ARE YOU GONNA FIGHT AGAIN?"

"I GOTTA HAND IT TO MUTT! THIS WILL BE A BIG NEWS SCOOP!"

"DEMPSEY WILL FIGHT AGAIN, JEFF, BUT YOU GOTTA GET HIM MAD FIRST!"

"LOOK! ANDY—HOW DO YOU LIKE THE CHAIR I PAINTED? IT WAS AN OLD TING I FOUND IN THE ATTIC."

"IT COULD LOOK WORSE."

"HOW DARE YOU? AFTER ALL MY WORK—I WAS TRYING TO SAVE YOU SOME MONEY—NOW APOLOGIZE FOR WHAT YOU JUST SAID."

"VERY WELL—I APOLOGIZE THEN—"

"IT COULD NOT LOOK WORSE."

LT.-GOVERNOR VISITS NORTH

Will Call at Queen Charlotte

Home Next Month

His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor R. Randolph Bruce, who left Vancouver on the Es. Prince George on June 10 on the northern trip, who has been visiting in Atlin, was expected to arrive at Wrangell yesterday from where he will take the boat up the Skeena to Telegraph Creek. After spending a few days there he will proceed to Prince Rupert from where he will take the boat for Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart. On his way south, he will visit the Queen Charlotte Islands, returning to Vancouver, about July 6. Mr. A. D. M. Fairbairn accompanied His Honor on the trip.

Film Actress To Marry Broker

Los Angeles, June 20.—May McAvoy, film actress, and Maurice J. Cleary, Los Angeles, investment broker, yesterday here filed notice of intention to marry. Under California's three-day marriage law, they will be entitled to their marriage license next Saturday. Miss McAvoy said, however, that the wedding was planned for June 26 at a Beverly Hills church.

The screen star expressed surprise when she found newspaper photographers awaiting her arrival at the county license bureau.

"I thought," she exclaimed, "we were keeping this secret."

"Well, nobody knows it but the newspapers, and they won't tell," said Cleary.

Miss McAvoy discarded dark glasses, which she wore when she first appeared, and went through the bureau formalities without further attempt at disguise.

The film actress gave her age as twenty-five. Clearly said he was thirty-one.

WELSH SOCIETY DINES PLAYERS

The Welsh football team were last night the guests of the Victoria Cymrodorion Society at a banquet and dance, held at St. David's Hall, Douglas Street.

Alderman James Adam welcomed the guests to Victoria and congratulated the team upon its success. Sam Davidson, secretary of the Canadian Football Association, and P. W. Reeves, vice-president of the Lower Mainland Football Association, also spoke. Robert Thomas, president of the Cymrodorion Society, acted as chairman, and presented the reports of Premier Tomin and Mayor Ansonb that other engagements prevented attendance.

The dinner arrangements were supervised by Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. W. Jones, Mrs. Griffiths and Mrs. Bowden, who were specially thanked for their labors by Mr. Reeves. Ted Robbins, president of the Welsh players, conveyed a message of goodwill from the Prince of Wales.

Following dinner a musical programme was enjoyed. The visiting footballers rendered choruses in Welsh and English, under the leadership of Mr. Robbins. Mrs. Mason, Miss May Lewis and David Evans contributed vocal solos and Miss Helen Thomas rendered piano selections.

Tributes were paid to Chief of Police John Fry and officers of the Victoria Police Department last night at the banquet which brought to a close the programme of sports and other entertainments for the day.

The banquet was held at the Hudson's Bay dining room, after the annual field and track events had been run off at the Willows.

The manifold duties of police officers of to-day call for exceptionally high standards of education and conduct," said Mayor Herbert Ansonb, in complimenting the force. "No occupation lends itself more to temptation and no occupation receives smaller remuneration for the grave responsibilities devolving upon it. In the integrity of the Victoria Police Department I find nothing wanting, and its high standard of efficiency is apparent to the public."

"The safeguarding of life and property lies in the hands of our police-men, and when we reflect on the full meaning of this, we realize to some extent why the public has a genuine respect, and, if I may say so, a genuine affection for the men in blue," continued His Worship.

"My official acquaintance with the force amply confirms the private opinion I previously held of Chief Fry and his men. I know that the members of the department are efficient, courteous, and honorable men. Since I have taken office not a single member of the force has been before the board for even the smallest dereliction of duty, and knowing Chief Fry and his strict methods of discipline, I can give no higher praise," concluded Mayor Ansonb, who was roundly cheered.

H. Despard Twigg, M.P.P., proposed the toast to visiting police officers and the ladies. It was largely due to the friendship and co-operation which existed between Canadian police and those to the south, that the great line of peace—the forty-ninth parallel—was so proudly boasted of to-day, he said. He paid tribute to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and to the khaki-clad police of the Province of British Columbia, and in closing Mr. Twigg complimented the ladies.

Deputy Chief of Police Murdoch, of Vancouver, complimented the Victoria force on its sports programme, and was particularly impressed with the results shown in the revolver shooting contest. In police work Victoria has always been helpful to Mainland cities, and was ever on its toes when action was demanded, he said.

Alderman James Adam, Reeve E. C. Hayward, of Oak Bay, Capt. J. W. Smith, of the Seattle Police Department, and others spoke briefly during the course of an entertainment evening. R. R. Webb, Ernie Impett, Fred Wright and Arthur Bishop and his orchestra gave an excellent musical interlude.

NEW YORK STORY WITH STRONG CAST AT THE DOMINION

There is probably no more unique entertainment given in any theatre in the world than that which is furnished on the Dominion screen to-day by "Lights of New York," a complete talking picture produced by Warner Bros. and just released from their Hollywood studios. It is said of this picture that it contains everything.

It is as fresh as the morning paper at breakfast time and chases laughter with tragedy and back again to merriment. The opportunities for this variety are due to the story. An ambitious country boy longing to make a name for himself in New York goes to the big city with a pal to enter a little business in which they have placed all their money. When too late they find they have been "taken in" by a couple of crooks and that the business they have entered is merely a cloak, or blind, for some bootleggers.

The story lands right on Broadway despite the traffic and the fact that the audience is taken to one of the most popular night clubs in the Broadway district. A large chorus comes in to do "The Pirates' Dance," and a vocalist renders popular airs.

It is so happens that the solo dancer with the chorus is the sweetheart of the country boy. This role is played by Helene Costello, the sister of the gorgeous Dolores, and she also shows that she possesses much versatility.

REAL CIRCUS LIFE SHOWING ON SCREEN AT THE COLUMBIA

Did you ever think of the circus as having a caste system as rigid as that which obtains at Newport or Palm Beach?

Such is the case, however, and you have only to see "The Circus Kid," the PBO circus special directed by George B. Seitz, at the Columbia Theatre to-day, to learn the details of circus etiquette, as well as catch an intimate "homey" glimpse of the life of the circus people under the canvas and on the road.

Performers can't associate with flunkies and peanut salesmen, according to the code, and between the laborers, "roughnecks" or "razor-backs," as they are called, and the talent—top artists, there is a wide gulf; they have their separate tables in the "cock-and-their entirely separate existence, slack," their separate cars in the train, and their entirely separate existence.

Director Allan Dwan now knows how it feels to be imprisoned in the unlighted depths of a dungeon. During the filming of the scenes in the underground chamber of the Palace of St. Germain in Douglas Fairbank's new United Artists "Sound" Picture, "The Iron Mask," at the Capitol Theatre all this week, the studio fire siren sounded. The crew of electricians immediately extinguished all

PLAYHOUSE STORY HAD LONG RUN IN NEW YORK THEATRE

Cecil B. De Mille's "King of Kings" at the Playhouse Theatre this week, drew immense crowds for eight months on Broadway, New York, where it crowded the Gaiety Theatre at every showing. Its tremendous electric sign made Broadway and 42nd Street, New York, the most brightly lighted spot of America. Those who enjoyed the filming of "The Ten Commandments" by De Mille have even a greater treat awaiting them in this work, which is based on the New Testament narrative.

TOBY LEITCH AND LORUS BAGSLEY HAVE FUN-MAKING ROLES

Keeping large audiences in peals of laughter for nearly an hour and a half, the Coliseum Players, under the direction of Raymond "Toby" Leitch, appear all this week at the Coliseum Theatre in a comedy farce entitled "Disappearing Jimmie."

The plot is exceptionally fine, but the good natured fun and banter in which the players indulge is even better. Toby Leitch and Lorus Bagsley have the leading fun-making roles and give splendid accounts of themselves. Mr. Leitch is well known for his comedy roles, but this is the first time in which Mr. Bagsley is featured as a clever and capable comedian. He is cast as the country constable, for ever on the look-out for some criminal whom he can "track down."

On the screen the feature attraction is a picture entitled "Mother Machree." It is a story of mother love, and making it more realistic are special musical numbers played by the orchestra.
